The Fall* returns to Baxter theatre by popular demand

Fresh from its resounding success at the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe Festival in Scotland, The Fall returns to the Baxter theatre for a short season, having received two top awards, four 5-star reviews and standing ovations at every performance.

The candid piece of workshop theatre took South Africa by storm and is based on the experiences of seven UCT graduates during the Rhodes Must Fall protests and subsequent student movements.

The plays hopes to create dialogue around issues of race, class, gender, sexism, colonialism and ideologies of patriarchy in the wake of global events that remind us these are vital and urgent topics all over the world.

The Fall shows from 12 to 21 September at 19:30 every evening. There is an age restriction of 16 years.
