

NORTH-WEST UNIVERSITY
YUNIBESITI YA BOKONE-BOPHIRIMA
NOORDWES-UNIVERSITEIT
VAAL TRIANGLE CAMPUS

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN THE FUNDED PATHWAYS TO RESILIENCE RESEARCH PROJECT

NORTH-WEST UNIVERSITY, FACULTY OF HUMANITIES, VAAL TRIANGLE CAMPUS (VANDERBIJLPARK), SOUTH AFRICA

A postdoctoral fellowship (fellowship R150 000 per annum, reasonable travel costs will be provided, fellowship is 1-2 years, third year negotiable) is available in the funded Pathways to Resilience Research Project (Project Director: Prof Linda Theron).

Requirements:

- Postdoctoral fellow must be selected and award made according to the NWU policies
- PhD (specialization in Positive Psychology or related focus) during the last five years
- Strong interest in aspects of resilience, and/or positive psychology
- Well-developed research skills
- Emerging publication record
- Very good MSOffice, Internet Skills
- Ability to work with people and in a team
- Fluent in English (spoken and written)

Responsibilities:

- Work with research team on research project and contribute significantly to publication of research results
- Work on own research to generate publications
- Limited research administration in the research project

Applications should include the following:

- Covering letter including an explanation of interest in postdoctoral work in the field of pathways to resilience
- CV
- Full academic record

Please contact Prof Linda Theron, telephone +2716 9103060/3076, fax +2716 9103078, e-mail Linda.theron@nwu.ac.za

Applications will close once a suitable candidate has been selected.