

University of the Free State
Funding opportunities for MA and PhD students and Postdoctoral Research Fellows in Southern and Central African Studies

Funding opportunities are now available at the University of the Free State for MA and PhD students and Postdoctoral Research Fellows in Southern and Central African Studies. Research proposals and projects should address significant themes within the period from the mid-nineteenth century until the present. Both subject-specific and interdisciplinary topics are welcome.

Students and research fellows will be attached to the Postgraduate School. They will be housed in a dedicated building with ample provision for work space, computer facilities and IT support. Successful applicants will be supervised by, or work with, Professor Ian Phimister.

For further information, please contact Professor Phimister at phimisterir@ufs.ac.za .
