Index .................................................................................................... 191
We, the staff and students of the Faculty of Law of the University of Cape Town, recognise that we are a community of scholars, striving for excellence in all that we do. We are conscious of the fact that we are part of the broader South African society, and also the African and international academic community. We acknowledge the role played by the law in creating a society that was characterised by oppression and remains deeply divided by inequality.

We commit ourselves to the following goals: teaching and research which is of the highest quality; developing all staff and students to their fullest potential; promoting an institutional culture founded on mutual tolerance, respect, understanding, integrity and openness, one which values our common humanity and which celebrates and promotes diversity. In the pursuit of all these goals we hope to contribute to redressing the inequality and disparity that continues to exist within South African society.

We recognise that the realisation of these goals requires:

- Scholarship that is critical and compassionate, and which explores the potential of the law as a means to achieving justice for all;
- Leadership that is effective and promotes the values of the faculty;
- Accountable, inclusive and transparent decision-making in which staff and students are given the opportunity for effective participation;
- Open and critical debate that protects and promotes academic freedom and university autonomy;
- Provision to staff and students of opportunities and resources necessary for their optimal development.

We will strive to live these values and achieve these goals in our daily activities and exchanges with one another.

Historical Note

The Faculty of Law had its beginnings in the institution of a lectureship in law in 1859 and is the oldest faculty of law in South Africa. The first professor of law, appointed at a salary of £300 per year, was JH Brand, LLD Barrister-at-Law, who left in 1863 to become President of the Orange Free State.

For a detailed account of the history and development of the Faculty of Law see DV Cowen The History of the Faculty of Law in the University of Cape Town, 1859 -- 1959 (Acta Juridica, 1959); Taught law is tough law: the evolution of a South African Law School (1914 --) (Tydskrif vir Hedendaagse Romeins-Hollandse Reg, 1988); DP Visser As durable as the mountain: the story of the Cape Town Law School since 1859 (Consultus, April 1992); and Denis Cowen and Daniel Visser The University of Cape Town Law Faculty: A History 1859 -- 2004 (Siber Ink 2004).

The University has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information in its handbooks. However, we reserve the right at any time, if circumstances dictate (for example, if there are not sufficient students registered), to (i) make alterations or changes to any of the published details of the opportunities on offer; or (ii) add to or withdraw any of the opportunities on offer.

Our students are given every assurance that changes to opportunities will only be made under compelling circumstances and students will be fully informed as soon as possible.

Professional Qualification

The Qualifications of Legal Practitioners Amendment Act of 1997 provides that the LLB is the universal legal qualification for admission and enrolment as an advocate or attorney. Normally those who wish to enter private practice as advocates are required to become members of a Bar Association by undergoing a period of training in pupillage with a practising member of the Bar and by sitting an admission examination. Before admission as an attorney, an LLB graduate must serve as a candidate attorney with a practising attorney. Attendance at a practical legal training course or performance of community service may reduce the period required to serve articles. Thereafter candidates write a professional examination set by the relevant provincial Law Society. The Act of Parliament regulating admission to practise law is being revised and a new law is expected in the near future, which may change these requirements. Obtaining the LLB does not entitle non-citizens of South Africa to be admitted to practise in this country.

Language proficiency in the legal profession

There are no statutory language requirements for the practice of law. Language proficiency is, however, very important for the study and practice of law. Prospective lawyers are encouraged, therefore, to include courses in the national languages in their curricula. The four-year undergraduate LLB requires the inclusion of languages in its curriculum.
QUALIFICATIONS IN THE FACULTY

The programmes in the Law Faculty are the Basic Legal Education Programme (leading to the LLB degree), the Advanced Legal Education Programme (leading to the LLM degree or a Postgraduate Diploma in Law) and the Practical Legal Education Programme (leading to a Certificate in Legal Practice).

Basic Legal Education programme

The LLB degree provides students with a sound knowledge of the general principles of the South African legal system, and an ability to use legal materials effectively. Graduates should be able critically to assess, interpret and apply the law and have the historical, comparative and jurisprudential background that is essential for a thorough and critical understanding of law and legal institutions.

These courses are offered in three streams: a three year graduate LLB stream, a five or six year combined Law and Humanities or Law and Commerce LLB stream, and a four year undergraduate LLB stream.

In each of these streams the courses are graded into three levels.

- At the Preliminary Level the courses acquaint students with both the background to and the foundations of the South African legal system, with legal thinking and analysis, and with an understanding of the role and function of law. In addition, particular attention is paid to reading and writing skills required for the senior courses.
- The Intermediate Level courses provide instruction on a more advanced level in a broad range of core subjects.
- The Final Level completes the degree and students are able to specialise by choosing from a range of optional courses.

Each level of the LLB degree curriculum includes a skills component which forms part of the degree programme and which cumulatively teaches students generic practical skills such as problem solving, analysis, research and communication skills, as well as practical legal skills such as drafting of particular kinds of legal documents and legal argumentation, both written and verbal. In particular, at the Final Level, a compulsory integrated assessment project draws on elements of the skills component and courses studied in the earlier parts of the curriculum. Law students are required in the Intermediate Level to make constructive use of the knowledge and skills they acquire by contributing to the community through Legal Aid, Community Service, Shawco, Rape Crisis, Parliamentary Monitoring Group or similar outreach activities.

Graduate LLB stream

Students enter this stream after having completed a bachelor’s degree without law subjects. Students who have done a full degree in another discipline will have had an opportunity to develop their critical and analytical skills in a non-legal environment, and therefore will be equipped to benefit from legal studies.
Five or six year combined Law and Humanities or Law and Commerce LLB stream

Students enter this stream with the intention of following an undergraduate programme in Law and Humanities or Law and Commerce, leading to a BA, BSocSc or a BCom/BBusSc and thereafter a two year graduate LLB. The objective of a broad-based education is achieved in this stream by including cognate courses which ensure that the student has a thorough grasp of at least one discipline outside of law.

Four-year undergraduate LLB stream

Students enter this stream as matriculants and complete the LLB degree in four years. Humanities courses are included in the curriculum so as to fulfil the objective of providing UCT Law graduates with a well rounded broad-based legal education.

Extended streams

All streams include the possibility of an extended curriculum for the purpose of accommodating students from educationally disadvantaged backgrounds.

Advanced Legal Education programme

This programme provides an opportunity for law graduates to pursue their academic interests at a higher postgraduate level (towards an LLM or Postgraduate Diploma) or for any other suitably qualified graduate to gain high-level knowledge of a particular field of law (through an MPhil degree) by way of coursework (in a very wide range of subjects) and an associated dissertation.

Practical Legal Education programme

The School for Legal Practice, established in 1992, is a joint project of the Law Society of South Africa and the Law Faculties of the Universities of Cape Town, Western Cape and Stellenbosch. The object of the School is to provide law graduates with applied skills in legal practice, thereby also improving access to the legal profession.

Two intensive full-time programmes are offered each year, the first commences in mid-January and runs to mid-June, and the second from late June to the end of November. A Night School is also offered which runs from late January to the end of November.

The Faculty also offers degrees at an advanced level which require satisfactory completion of independent research and writing.
DEPARTMENTS IN THE FACULTY

The Departments of the Faculty are located in the Wilfred and Jules Kramer Law School Building, Middle Campus. There are also Research units attached to each of these departments. The School for Legal Practice falls under the office of the Dean.

The Centre for Comparative Law in Africa (CCLA) was established in 2011 to promote the study of comparative law and draw on the strengths of comparative methodology to research into the multifaceted field of law in Africa. The Centre presents an opportunity to develop a discipline that lends itself to optimal application in the pluralistic legal frameworks within which life is lived in Africa. In its mission to contribute to the development of comparative law in Africa, the strategy of the CCLA is to establish the field at UCT, build capacity in it across the continent through academic programmes, apply comparative law expertise in consultancies and disseminate new knowledge in comparative law in Africa through conferences, publications and professional networks. Its location within the Department of Commercial Law recognises the centrality of comparative law to ongoing efforts at economic integration on the African continent. The CCLA offers an LLM and a postgraduate diploma specialising in Comparative Law and conducts research on a variety of themes that apply the comparative methodology. The CCLA also provides support for Africa-focused doctoral research and undertakes capacity-building programmes in various issues of law in development in Africa that require comparative methods.

The Institute was established at the beginning of 1996 through the merger of the Labour Law Unit (established in 1987) and the Institute of Development Law (established in 1992). It is situated in the Faculty of Law. The objectives of the Institute are to promote research into the law relating to development and labour in Southern Africa, foster links and provide a reference point for scholarship and policy. It convenes conferences, seminars and workshops. It is also produces, either independently or as part of joint projects, several publications, including the Industrial Law Journal and the Southern African Development and Labour Monographs. The Institute also runs postgraduate diplomas in Employment Law and Dispute Resolution as part of the School of Advanced Legal Studies programme.

The Intellectual Property Law and Policy Research Unit (IP Research Unit) was set up in 2007 as a centre for policy research and teaching in intellectual property law. The IP Research Unit believes that it is important that developing countries participate in the evolution of the Intellectual Property policy and law systems to ensure that any changes take full account of the needs of emerging economies and therefore can benefit them.

The Unit and its members engage in research and teaching primarily in the area of new and emerging technologies in the fields of biotechnology, information science and technology, medical science and agriculture. As such, the Unit specialises in areas of intellectual property which include patent law, copyright law and access and benefit sharing issues. The debate on intellectual property law and global issues increasingly necessitates policy research and analysis which is relevant to addressing the needs of developing and emerging economies. South Africa has to play a part in defining the manner in which these new challenges are met.

Shipping Law Unit

Associate Professor and Head:

The Shipping Law Unit has been in operation since the beginning of 1993. The Unit was set up within the Department of Commercial Law to accommodate part-time and full-time studies in Shipping Law at higher postgraduate level, and to support the Maritime Law option offered to Final Level LLB students. The Shipping Law Unit provides postgraduate and higher postgraduate tuition and research in Admiralty law and practice and in all private law aspects of the law relating to the sea and ships. It serves as an information and advice centre to the shipping industry, and monitors developments in maritime law and policy in South Africa and abroad. The Unit co-operates closely with the Institute of Marine and Environmental Law which handles the public law elements of the Law of the Sea and related subjects.

The UCT Law Clinic operates as a fully functioning law practice run by a professional staff of experienced practising attorneys who litigate in the District, Regional and High Courts on behalf of indigent people who would otherwise not have access to the law.

Final year students who work at the Law Clinic register for the Legal Practice course (DOL4500H) which allows them the opportunity to work as legal advisors under the supervision of the Clinic’s attorneys. The students take instruction from clients and learning is largely experiential. Skills learnt include how to consult and communicate with clients, communication and organisational skills, file management, trial advocacy, just to list a few.

The Law Clinic is accredited by the Cape Law Society and adheres strictly to its guidelines with regard to professional conduct. The Law Clinic may be contacted at uctlawclinic@uct.ac.za or on the following number: 021-6503775.

The Centre for Law and Society (previously the Law, Race and Gender Research Unit) has worked, since its establishment in 1993, to provide legal decision-makers with an understanding of the ways in which the history and social context of South Africa informs the creation, application and interpretation of our laws. The Centre focuses on producing excellent empirical studies of law in context, based on participatory methodologies and collaborative partnerships. Research, training, and participatory workshops with legal decision makers have focused on issues of gender-based violence, racial discrimination and inequality, sexuality, ethics and associated legal problems. Currently the work of the Centre is focused through its Rural Women’s Action Research programme on laws and practices affecting people living under customary law, including the Traditional Courts Bill and Communal Land Rights Act, and related governance issues. We have a developing focus on economic justice and the role of legal institutions in inequality of access to resources and power. The Centre also convenes, with the Centre of Criminology, the LLM/MPhil Programme in Criminology, Law and Society. At the heart of the Centre’s work is a commitment to sound research underpinning evidence-based advocacy on critical legal and social issues.

The Centre is a niche research unit within the Faculty of Law at the University of Cape Town. The work of the Centre is focussed around some of the most pertinent challenges facing South Africa and Africa more generally within the overall context of an increasingly globalised world.

This work includes a strong emphasis on research in: (1) developments and challenges for policing, both public, private and community driven, and reforms; (2) organised crime and illicit trafficking in South Africa and Africa, with a focus on the evolution of criminal networks in fragile states and their impact on governance, democracy, livelihoods and the environment; (3) criminal justice policy challenges, with an emphasis on developing country contexts; and (4) violent crime, with particular attention to its impact on youth and women.

The work of the Centre recognises the critical importance of addressing safety issues as a core challenge of holistic development. To do this requires stretching the boundaries of criminology in ways that will enable it to recognise and respond to the changing international, regional and local landscape of risk.

The DGRU’s mission is to advance the principles and practice of constitutional democracy in Africa. Recognising the gap between the promise of constitutionalism and the reality of daily life for the majority of Africans, the DGRU aims to stimulate fresh thinking on the intersection between rights and transformative governance. In collaboration with others, the DGRU supports the process of law and policy reform, and informs debate, through inter-disciplinary research and advocacy.

Our primary focus is on the relationship between governance and human rights, and the unit has established itself as one of South Africa’s leading research centres in the area of judicial governance, conducting research on the judicial appointments process, judicial ethics and on the future institutional modality of the judicial branch of government.

The Institute of Marine and Environmental Law monitors developments in the Law of the Sea and Environmental Law both at the international level and in the Southern African context. Its functions include keeping interested parties, in both the public and private sectors, informed of these developments; publishing from time to time substantial articles of an academic nature as monographs or occasional papers; providing opinions and undertaking research projects on a fee-paying basis when commissioned to do so; building up library and reference centres on the Law of the Sea and Environmental Law; providing courses and research supervision for postgraduate students in aspects of the Law of the Sea and Environmental Law; and providing such incidental lectures on these subjects as may be required by the University or outside interests.

The Refugee Rights Unit was founded in 1998 as a Project within the UCT Law Clinic, aimed at providing legal support services to the growing number of refugees and asylum seekers in South Africa. It has since evolved into a fully independent unit, with four main components: the Unit’s Refugee Law Clinic provides direct legal services to thousands of refugees and asylum seekers in the Western Cape each year; the Unit conducts applied research in refugee law and related topics; it teaches refugee law to undergraduate law and master’s students within the Department of Public Law; and, it undertakes a significant amount of targeted advocacy and training of government officials, the judiciary, civil society partners and refugee communities.

The close relationship between the Refugee Law Clinic’s practice, the Unit’s teaching of Refugee and Immigration Law courses to LLB and LLM students, and the Unit’s research is a unique aspect of the Unit’s work. The Refugee Law Clinic provides the Unit with a close link to the practical application of refugee law in South Africa and therefore directly informs and supports the Unit’s teaching activities and research outputs. Students often engage with the most current issues facing refugees and asylum seekers in South Africa, including those involved in the strategic litigations undertaken by the Refugee Law Clinic. Students are also encouraged to volunteer at the Refugee Law Clinic in order to gain practical experience and fulfil community service requirements. The Unit’s teaching component includes the direct supervision of undergraduate and graduate level research work in the field of refugee and immigration law.

The Working Paper Series (http://www.refugeerights.uct.ac.za/research/working_papers/) publishes the research reports of the Refugee Rights Unit, occasional papers of the Unit members and versions of some of the papers presented by the Refugee Rights Unit members. A key focus of the Working Papers is the promotion of the rights of refugees in South Africa and the global South.

The Refugee Rights Unit remains not only committed to directly assisting refugees and asylum seekers but also in teaching and engaging in research which can be used to promote and further the law in this area and as an advocacy tool in the future. Further details on the Refugee Rights Unit may be obtained from the Refugee Rights Unit, Department of Public Law, Faculty of Law, University of Cape Town, Private Bag X3, Rondebosch, 7701, Telephone +27 21 650 5632, Fax: +27 21 650 4107 or Web: http://www.refugeerights.uct.ac.za

Receptionist:
D Arendse

The School for Legal Practice, established in 1993, is a joint project of the Law Society of South Africa and the Law Faculties of the Universities of Cape Town, Western Cape and Stellenbosch. The object of the School is to provide law graduates with applied skills in legal practice, thereby also improving access to the legal profession.

Two intensive full-time programmes are offered each year, the first commences in mid-January and runs to the middle of June, and the second from late June to end November. A Night School is also offered which runs from late January to the end of July.

Candidates at the School register as UCT students for the semester course DOL5600F/S Legal Practice, and may elect either to follow that course alone, or to apply for admission to LLM studies which will entail the completion of an additional three courses and a 25 000 word dissertation.

Attendance at the School may be credited towards the period required for the successful completion of articles of clerkship for the purposes of admission as an attorney.

The School is situated on the 1st Floor, Burg House, 14 Belmont Office Park, Belmont Road, Rondebosch, 7700. Further details on the School for Legal Practice may be obtained from either the Faculty Office or from the Director of the School for Legal Practice, University of Cape Town, Private Bag X3, Rondebosch, 7701. The Brand Van Zyl Law Library is located on the second level of the Wilfred and Jules Kramer Law School Building, University of Cape Town. It holds substantial collections of South African, foreign, international and comparative legal materials, including monographs, law reports, statutes and journals.

The Library offers a substantial range of electronic resources, including indexes and full-text databases of case law, statutes and journal articles. Law students may access these databases from eighty six computers in the Library, and may use these facilities to type and print out their assignments.

The Law Library also houses the Brand Van Zyl Collection which was presented to the University Library by the Rt Hon G Brand Van Zyl in 1949, and comprises legal works collected by the Van Zyl family over a period of 70 years. Additions to the collection are made by virtue of a bequest received for this purpose from the estate of the late Mrs MEC Van Zyl. This valuable collection now consists of more than 5000 volumes on Roman-Dutch law, most of which were published in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. These books may be consulted in the Van Zyl Seminar Room, with the permission of the Law Librarian. Hours of opening may be obtained from the Law Librarian, or from the website: http://www.lib.uct.ac.za/law.

Computer Resources

The Law Faculty believes that all its graduates should be computer literate and must know how to use the Internet and electronic legal resources for research and communication. Each and every student registered in the Faculty has a UCT email account, along with the use of the computers in the Law Faculty email bar in the Kramer Law building (on level 2) and in the Brand Van Zyl Law Library (level 2 and 1). Among the facilities available to students are word-processing for assignments, internet and email, and access to a range of South African and international electronic legal databases.

Students in the Faculty are offered training in general computer knowledge and word processing skills, also in the use of a wide range of electronic legal resources, such as LexisNexis and Jutastat. Many of these resources are listed on the Law Library’s homepage at http://www.lib.uct.ac.za/law.

The Law Faculty has a comprehensive website which gives details about degrees and courses offered in the Faculty, about the staff and their teaching and research, and about the Brand Van Zyl Law Library and the services offered.

The Law Faculty homepage also supports the Constitutional Assembly Database of information relating to the drafting of South Africa's 1993 and 1996 Constitutions. Visit the Law Faculty's homepage at http://www.law.uct.ac.za
STRUCTURE OF COURSE CODES

Every course described in this Handbook has a course name and a corresponding course code. The code structure is uniform, and it gives important information about the course. Each code, e.g. DDD1nnnS, has eight characters, where

- DDD: first 3 letters of the code denote the name of the Department offering the course
- 1: is a number representing the year of study in which the course is usually taken
- nnn: is a 3 character number that identifies the course uniquely
- S: is a single alpha character, specifying the time period during which the course is offered
  - The following are used:
    - F: 1st semester course
    - S: 2nd semester course
    - H: half course taught over whole year
    - W: full course, year long
    - Z: non-standard period

The following examples show how this works:

RDL2002H  Law of Property
- RDL: designates a Private Law course
- 2: designates a second year course
- 002: character number unique to course
- H: designates a half course, over the whole year

PBL3000F  Interpretation of Statutes
- PBL: designates a Public Law course
- 3: designates a third year course
- 000: character number unique to course
- F: designates a first semester course

LECTURE PERIODS

RULES FOR LLB DEGREE STREAMS (up to 2011)

The following are rules for specific study programmes in the Faculty. They must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies of the University of Cape Town.

NOTE: The rules in this section apply to all students who registered for the LLB for the first time up to and including 2011. Students who registered for the LLB for the first time in 2012 or who repeated the preliminary year in 2012 should refer to the following section, Rules for LLB Degree Streams (from 2012).

Admission and Curriculum Rules

The Basic Legal Education Programme is offered in three streams:
(a) the three year graduate LLB
(b) the two year graduate LLB
(c) the four year undergraduate LLB

Admission requirements for these streams as well as for the combined Law and Humanities and Law and Commerce LLB streams may be found in Book 1: Undergraduate Prospectus.

Transferring students

Internal
A UCT student who has not been excluded from another faculty within UCT may be considered for admission to the Faculty of Law for the purpose of taking or completing the LLB degree, provided the applicant satisfies the requirements for admission to the degree programme into which the student would be transferring. Successful applicants may be granted credits or exemptions or both for courses already completed, up to a maximum of four full courses (or the equivalent).

External
A non-UCT student who has not been excluded from another university may be considered for admission to the Faculty of Law, provided the applicant satisfies the requirements for admission to the degree programme into which the student would be transferring. Successful applicants may be granted credits or exemptions or both for courses already completed, up to a maximum of four full courses (or the equivalent). Credits and exemptions will only be granted for courses completed at another institution if the Faculty is satisfied that the courses taken elsewhere are substantially equivalent, in both content and standard, to the courses offered at UCT. Such transferring students will be required to complete the remaining courses prescribed for the degree at this University over a period of not less than two years.

Duration of the streams of the Basic Legal Education programme

FP1 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the four year undergraduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over four years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over five years.

FP2 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the three year graduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over three years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over four years.

FP3 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the two year graduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over two years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over three years.
CURRICULUM REQUIREMENTS:

Graduate LLB stream

The courses prescribed for the LLB degree programme are:

| DOL4000H    | Integrative Assessment Project   | 0  | 8 |
| Research Component (elective courses and research paper) | 36 | 8 |

Total credits for Final Level 162

Total credits for the graduate LLB programme 522

FP4.2 The research component and Community Service are compulsory requirements for the degree; the research component is weighted 36 NQF credits.

FP4.3 Elective courses in the Final Level of the degree are weighted 9 NQF credits each.

FP4.4 A candidate in the Final Level of the degree must choose elective courses totalling a minimum of 36 NQF credits. Two kinds of electives are on offer: lectures-and-examination electives and seminars-and-research-paper electives. Every Final Level student must do at least one seminars-and-research-paper elective, but any student may do an Independent Research Paper of 8000 words instead of the seminars-and-research-paper elective.
FP4.5 A candidate may undertake additional elective courses amounting to not more than 18 NQF credits.

FP4.6 The maximum number of credits for optional courses in the Final Level is 54 credits.

FP4.7.1 Intermediate Level students may register for DOL4500H Legal Practice (previously Legal Aid and Legal Practice) if
(i) they have achieved an average of 65% in the Preliminary Level law courses; and
(ii) the Director of UCT Law Clinic has admitted them into the course.

FP4.7.2 DOL4500H Legal Practice completed while a student is in the Intermediate Level does not contribute to the fulfilment of the requirements in FP4.4.

FP4.8 A student from the University of Cape Town coming into the graduate stream of the LLB may be exempted from MAM1013F/S if he or she
(i) shows in a test prescribed by Senate that he or she has an ability to deal with the numerical problems that arise in law; or
(ii) shows evidence that he or she has received credit or tested out for MAM1014F course or its equivalent.

NOTE: The Head of Department together with the Faculty member concerned is responsible for deciding whether an approved optional course for which fewer than five students register should be offered.

Four year undergraduate LLB stream

FP5.1 The curriculum for the four-year, undergraduate LLB stream requires a candidate to complete prescribed law courses and a minimum number of non-law courses as set out below.

FP5.2 A candidate must –
(a) show in a test prescribed by Senate that he or she has an ability to deal with the numerical problems that arise in law; or
(b) if he or she fails this test, complete the course MAM1013F/S Law That Counts: Quantitative Literacy for Law.

A candidate may not attempt the numeracy test a second time. Note that candidates admitted to the third (Intermediate) year are exempted from this course.

FP5.3 The courses prescribed for the first (Preliminary) year are:

FP5.3.1 A candidate who has passed the numeracy test must complete an additional semester course offered in another faculty.

FP5.3.2 A candidate who wishes to take a course in Economics must take both ECO1010F Microeconomics and ECO1011S Macroeconomics, must have obtained a minimum D symbol for Mathematics (HG) at senior certificate or a minimum of 5 at national senior certificate or equivalent.
NOTE: Students are advised to ascertain the Entrance requirements for all courses they wish to take in another faculty. In the second year, a candidate is required to take two courses in another faculty at second year level in one discipline (e.g. History). Usually one course (semester) (e.g. in History) is sufficient for admission to second year courses in a discipline. However, if he or she wishes to take English courses in the ‘second year’, he or she must take two courses in English, one of which must be ELL1013F English Literary Studies, in the first year.

Two semester courses in a single language, or a whole course in a language.

Two 2000-level semester courses in one discipline (e.g. English) offered in another faculty.

Total credits for second (Preliminary) year 156

NOTE: Students are advised that the language course should not be in a language in which the student is fluent or one taken for Grade 12, unless it is proposed that the language concerned be taken at a more advanced level than beginner.

Research Component (elective courses and research paper)

Total credits for fourth (Final) year 162

Total credits for the four-year undergraduate LLB programme 660

Note: FP4.2–FP4.7 apply also to the undergraduate LLB curriculum.
All streams: skills component

FP6.1 All streams of the curriculum for the LLB degree have a skills component which forms part of each level of the degree programme. The skills component is compulsory. Candidates in the respective levels of the degree must comply with the requirements of the skills component tasks. For the purposes of design and co-ordination, the four-year LLB stream pattern is used.

FP6.2 In each academic year the following are included:
- writing skills (including essay work, opinion work and drafting)
- computer skills
- problem solving
- analysis
- research (including library skills)
- oral presentation (including preparation for debates, seminars and moots)

FP6.3 In the FIRST year, there should be emphasis on:
- writing skills
- problem solving
- reading skills

FP6.4 In the SECOND year, there should be emphasis on:
- problem solving
- analysis including critical analysis
- oral presentation

FP6.5 In the THIRD year, in addition to fulfilling course-specific requirements such as assignments and tests every student must:
- write one essay and one opinion
- participate in a moot
- attend all tutorials (or submit written work at the discretion of the course convener)

FP6.6 In the FOURTH year, there should be:
- interviewing
- an Integrative Assessment Project. This project will test the accumulated skills and ability of students to demonstrate an overall grasp of South African law and how it operates in real life situations by posing a problem which integrates a variety of areas of law taught as separate subjects earlier in the curriculum.

Progress rules for LLB degree streams

Graduate LLB stream

FP7.1 A candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the Preliminary Level may proceed to the Intermediate Level of study and repeat the outstanding half course in that year; and a candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the Intermediate Level may proceed to the Final Level of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year. Additional courses may only be carried with the permission of Senate.

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year, or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.
FP7.2 A candidate who has more than
(a) one half course outstanding from the Preliminary Level may not register for more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the outstanding course(s) from the Preliminary Level; or
(b) one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the Intermediate Level may not register for more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the outstanding course(s) from the Intermediate Level.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

Combined undergraduate/graduate stream

A student in the combined stream must follow the curriculum as set out below subject to the rules of the Humanities or Commerce Faculties. Please note that students are not permitted to register for senior law courses unless the pre-requisites are met. See the syllabus section in the relevant Faculty handbook for details.

Four year undergraduate LLB stream

FP8.1 A candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the first or second year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the second or third year respectively and repeat the outstanding half course in that year. This provision applies in respect of non-law and law courses inclusively.
A candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the third year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the fourth year of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year.

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year, or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.

FP8.2 A candidate who has failed more than one half course in the first or second year, or a candidate who has failed more than one course (or two half courses) in the third year, may not register for the set of courses prescribed for the second, third or final year of study (respectively) but may, nevertheless, register for not more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the course(s) outstanding from the previous year of study.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

Extended LLB stream

FP9.1 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the second year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the first year of study.

FP9.2 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the third year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the second year of study.

FP9.3 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the fourth year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the third year of study.

FP9.4 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the fifth year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the fourth year of study.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

FP9.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of Rules FP9.1, FP9.2, FP9.3 and FP9.4, a candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the first, second or third year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the second, third or fourth year respectively and repeat the outstanding half course in that year. This provision applies in respect of non-law and law courses inclusively.

A candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the fourth year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the fifth year of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year.

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.

FP9.6 In addition to the provisions of Rules FP9.1, FP9.2, FP9.3 and FP9.4, a candidate who has failed more than one half course in the first, second or third year, and a candidate who has failed more than one course (or two half courses) in the fourth year, may register for not more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include all the courses outstanding from the previous year of study.

General progress rules for all streams

Maximum number of courses in any year:

FP10.1 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for more than the equivalent of:

(i) nine half courses at the Preliminary Level
(ii) twelve half courses at the Intermediate Level
(iii) fourteen half courses at the Final Level.

NOTE: For the purposes of this rule, year 3 of the undergraduate extended curriculum stream is regarded as Preliminary Level.

FP10.2 Notwithstanding FP10.1 a student may take Humanities courses offered in the Summer Term.

Minimum requirements for re-admission:

FP11.1 A candidate may be refused permission to renew his/her registration in the Faculty if he/she fails:

(i) the equivalent of four half courses or more at any level; or
(ii) to complete all the courses prescribed for the degree within the prescribed time plus two years.

FP11.2 A student on an extended curriculum stream may be refused permission to renew his/her registration in the Faculty if he or she fails the equivalent of three half courses.

NOTE: F16.1 Supplementary examinations rule applies before the FP11 Minimum requirements for re-admission takes effect.

FP12 A student who is refused permission to re-register in the Faculty may appeal to the Faculty Readmission Appeal Committee in accordance with procedures laid down by Senate. The decision of the Faculty Readmission Appeal Committee will be final and will not be subject to further review or appeal.

Absence from examinations:

FP13.1 A student who fails to write the examination in a course for which he or she is registered will be deemed to have failed the course for the purposes of the minimum requirements for re-admission.

FP13.2 Senate may grant permission to a student to write a test on a different day where he or she is unable to write for medical reasons, or has religious objections, or political objections, or other good cause for not writing on the scheduled day or days. The grant of permission is entirely at the discretion of Senate, irrespective of the grounds (including medical) on which the application is made. The application must be made to the Dean within 7 days of the test. Exemption from a test or other course requirement is a concession to depart from degree requirements (see FP20).

Subminimum mark in final examinations:

FP14 A candidate must obtain a subminimum of 45% in each University examination in a course in order to obtain credit for that course, subject to Rule FP15.

Oral examinations:

FP15.1 A candidate in his or her final year of study has the right to an oral examination in any course which he or she has failed (because he or she failed to obtain a mark of 50% overall or failed to obtain a mark of 45% in the final examination) if he or she has:

(i) scored 47% or more overall in that course and

(ii) scored 45% or more in the final examination in that course.

FP15.2 A candidate must be given at least three days’ (72 hours) notice of any oral examination.

FP15.3 Where possible, the external examiner will be present at an oral examination. If the external examiner is not able to be present, another examiner external to the course, who may be a member of staff, must be present.

NOTE: Oral examinations may be held over a weekend.

Supplementary examinations:

FP16.1 Senate may permit a candidate to write supplementary examinations in the equivalent of three half courses in any one year, provided that:

(i) he or she has reached a sufficiently high standard when failing such course(s); and

(ii) the courses are the only courses failed by him/her in that year.

NOTE: The decision on whether to award a supplementary examination will be taken by Senate on the recommendation of the Head of Department in which the course is offered.
Students who are granted supplementary examinations will be required to re-write the whole formal examination component, including all papers, practicals, etc., which constituted the original formal examination component.

Deferred examinations:
FP17.1 Deferred examinations on medical or compassionate grounds are considered by a committee established by Senate for this purpose in terms of the general university rules. (see G25.1 in “General Rules for Degrees”, Handbook 3 General Rules and Policies). If the deferred examination is granted, the candidate will be required to write only those portions of the original examination which he or she missed.

FP17.2 Application must be made on the prescribed form obtainable at the Records Office in the Student Administration Building, within seven days from the first examination (written, oral, or practical) which the student missed or was unable to complete.

FP17.3 A student who becomes ill during an examination must proceed directly from the examination venue to the Student Health Service unless the nature of the illness makes this impossible.

FP17.4 Misreading of the examination timetable will not be condoned or accepted; neither is it a ground for a deferred examination. (See G18.9 in “General Rules for Degrees”, Handbook 3 General Rules and Policies.)

Distinction:
FP18 The degree may be awarded cum laude or magna cum laude.

FP18.1 For the degree to be awarded cum laude a candidate must:
(i) complete the curriculum in the minimum time without failing any course, unless such failure is condoned by Senate;
(ii) obtain an average of 70% in all law courses completed at this University; and
(iii) obtain a First Class pass in at least six full law courses or the equivalent.

FP18.2 For the degree to be awarded magna cum laude a candidate must:
(i) complete the curriculum in the minimum time without failing any course, unless such failure is condoned by Senate;
(ii) obtain an average of 75% in all law courses completed at this University; and
(iii) obtain a First Class pass in at least nine full law courses, or the equivalent.

FP18.3 In the case of a candidate who has transferred from another university, Senate may in exceptional circumstances depart from the Rules relating to the number of courses for which a First Class pass must be obtained and award a degree cum laude or magna cum laude. Senate may do so only if, after having reviewed the academic record of the candidate at such other university, Senate is satisfied that the candidate would have fulfilled the requirements for the degree to be so awarded if he or she had completed the degree at this University.

NOTE: For an explanation on how averages are computed, please refer to the entry on “Dean’s Merit List”.

 Concurrent registration:
FP19 Except with permission of Senate, a student may not register for any course taken at another university in the same year during which such student is registered at the University of Cape Town.
Deviations from the rules:

FP20  Senate may, on the recommendation of the Dean after consultation with the Head of Department concerned, permit a deviation from the rules governing the curriculum of a student.

A student may apply for such deviation by timeously submitting to the Dean a completed concession application form, obtainable from the Faculty Office.

NOTE: Senate’s authority to permit deviations from the rules governing the curriculum of an LLB student is delegated to the Admissions, Concessions and Credits Committee of the Law Faculty.

Revision of the rules:

FP21  Senate may at any time revise any rule.
Pattern of courses for the LLB degree streams

NOTE: In the absence of compelling circumstances a student may not register for the following optional courses in Intermediate Level:

Revenue Law, Trusts and Estate Planning, Competition Law, Constitutional Litigation, Current Issues in Constitutional Law, Conflict of Laws, Unjustified Enrichment and Cession, Moot Option.

RULES FOR LLB DEGREE STREAMS (from 2012)

The following are rules for specific study programmes in the Faculty. They must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies of the University of Cape Town.

NOTE: The rules in this section apply to all students who registered for the LLB for the first time in 2012 or who repeated the preliminary year in 2012. Students who registered for the LLB for the first time up to and including 2011 should refer to the previous section, Rules for LLB Degree Streams (up to 2011).

Admission and Curriculum Rules

The Basic Legal Education Programme is offered in three streams:

(a) the three year graduate LLB
(b) the two year graduate LLB
(c) the four year undergraduate LLB

Admission requirements for these streams as well as for the combined Law and Humanities and Law and Commerce LLB streams may be found in Book 1: Undergraduate Prospectus.

Transferring students

Internal
A UCT student who has not been excluded from another faculty within UCT may be considered for admission to the Faculty of Law for the purpose of taking or completing the LLB degree, provided the applicant satisfies the requirements for admission to the degree programme into which the student would be transferring. Successful applicants may be granted credits or exemptions or both for courses already completed, up to a maximum of four full courses (or the equivalent).

External
A non-UCT student who has not been excluded from another university may be considered for admission to the Faculty of Law, provided the applicant satisfies the requirements for admission to the degree programme into which the student would be transferring. Successful applicants may be granted credits or exemptions or both for courses already completed, up to a maximum of four full courses (or the equivalent). Credits and exemptions will only be granted for courses completed at another institution if the Faculty is satisfied that the courses taken elsewhere are substantially equivalent, in both content and standard, to the courses offered at UCT. Such transferring students will be required to complete the remaining courses prescribed for the degree at this University over a period of not less than two years.

Duration of the streams of the Basic Legal Education programme

FP1 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the four year undergraduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over four years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over five years.

FP2 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the three year graduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over three years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over four years.

FP3 Subject to the provisions that follow, the curriculum for the two year graduate stream of the Basic Legal Education programme will extend over two years; the curriculum for the extended curriculum stream will extend over three years.

Total credits for Final Level 180

Total credits for the graduate LLB stream 504

FP4.2 The research component and Community Service are compulsory requirements for the degree; the research component is weighted 36 NQF credits.

FP4.3 Elective courses in the Final Level of the degree are weighted 9 NQF credits each.

FP4.4 A candidate in the Final Level of the degree must choose elective courses totalling a minimum of 36 NQF credits. Two kinds of electives are on offer: lectures-and-examination electives and seminars-and-research-paper electives. Every Final Level student must do at least one seminars-and-research-paper elective, but any student may do an Independent Research Paper of 8000 words instead of the seminars-and-research-paper elective.

FP4.5 A candidate may undertake additional elective courses amounting to not more than 18 NQF credits.

FP4.6 The maximum number of credits for elective courses in the Final Level is 54 credits.
FP4.7 Intermediate Level students may register for DOL4500H Legal Practice (previously Legal Aid and Legal Practice) if

(i) they have achieved an average of 65% in the Preliminary Level law courses; and
(ii) the Director of UCT Law Clinic has admitted them into the course.

NOTE: The Head of Department together with the Faculty member concerned is responsible for deciding whether an approved optional course for which fewer than five students register should be offered.

Four year undergraduate LLB stream (LB002)

FP5.1 The curriculum for the four-year, undergraduate LLB stream requires a candidate to complete prescribed law courses and a minimum number of non-law courses as set out below.

FP5.2 A candidate must –
(a) show in a test prescribed by Senate that he or she has an ability to deal with the numerical problems that arise in law; or
(b) if he or she fails this test, complete the course MAM1013F/S Law That Counts: Quantitative Literacy for Law.

A candidate may not attempt the numeracy test a second time. Note that candidates admitted to the third (Intermediate) year are exempted from this course.

FP5.3.1 A candidate who has passed the numeracy test must complete an additional semester course offered in another faculty.

FP5.3.2 A candidate who wishes to take a course in Economics must take both ECO1010F Microeconomics and ECO1011S Macroeconomics, must have obtained a minimum D symbol for Mathematics (HG) at senior certificate or a minimum of 5 at national senior certificate or equivalent.

NOTE: Students are advised to ascertain the Entrance requirements for all courses they wish to take in another faculty. In the second year, a candidate is required to take two courses in another faculty at second year level in one discipline (e.g. History). Usually one course (semester) (e.g. in History) is sufficient for admission to second year courses in a discipline. However, if he or she wishes to take English courses in the second year, he or she must take two courses in English, one of which must be ELL1013F English Literary Studies, in the first year. Students are further advised that the language course should not be in a language in which the student is fluent or one taken for Grade 12, unless it is proposed that the language concerned be taken at a more advanced level than beginner.

FP5.3 The courses prescribed for the undergraduate LLB stream are:

Total credits for fifth year 180

Total credits for the undergraduate LLB stream 660

Note: FP4.2 – FP4.7 and FP5.1 – FP5.3 apply also to the extended undergraduate LLB curriculum.

All streams: skills component

FP6.1 All streams of the curriculum for the LLB degree have a skills component which forms part of each level of the degree programme. The skills component is compulsory. Candidates in the respective levels of the degree must comply with the requirements of the skills component tasks. For the purposes of design and co-ordination, the four-year LLB stream pattern is used.

FP6.2 In each academic year the following are included:
- writing skills (including essay work, opinion work and drafting)
- computer skills
- problem solving
- analysis
- research (including library skills)
- oral presentation (including preparation for debates, seminars and moots)

FP6.3 In the FIRST year, there should be emphasis on:
- writing skills
- problem solving
- reading skills

FP6.4 In the SECOND year, there should be emphasis on:
- problem solving
- analysis including critical analysis
- oral presentation

FP6.5 In the THIRD year, in addition to fulfilling course-specific requirements such as assignments and tests every student must:
- write one essay and one opinion
- participate in a moot
- attend all tutorials (or submit written work at the discretion of the course convener)
FP6.6 In the FOURTH year, there should be:
• interviewing
• an Integrative Assessment Project. This project will test the accumulated skills and ability of students to demonstrate an overall grasp of South African law and how it operates in real life situations by posing a problem which integrates a variety of areas of law taught as separate subjects earlier in the curriculum.

Progress rules for LLB degree streams

Graduate LLB stream

FP7.1 A candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the Preliminary Level may proceed to the Intermediate Level of study and repeat the outstanding half course in that year; and a candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the Intermediate Level may proceed to the Final Level of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year. Additional courses may only be carried with the permission of Senate.

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year, or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.

FP7.2 A candidate who has more than
(a) one half course outstanding from the Preliminary Level may not register for more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the outstanding course(s) from the Preliminary Level; or
(b) one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the Intermediate Level may not register for more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the outstanding course(s) from the Intermediate Level.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

Combined undergraduate/graduate stream

A student in the combined stream must follow the curriculum as set out below subject to the rules of the Humanities or Commerce Faculties. Please note that students are not permitted to register for senior law courses unless the pre-requisites are met. See the syllabus section in the relevant Faculty handbook for details.

Four year undergraduate LLB stream

FP8.1 A candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the first or second year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the second or third year respectively and repeat the outstanding half course in that year. This provision applies in respect of non-law and law courses inclusively.
A candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the third year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the fourth year of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year.
RULES FOR LLB DEGREE STREAMS (FROM 2012)  47

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year, or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.

FP8.2 A candidate who has failed more than one half course in the first or second year, or a candidate who has failed more than one course (or two half courses) in the third year, may not register for the set of courses prescribed for the second, third or final year of study (respectively) but may, nevertheless, register for not more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include the course(s) outstanding from the previous year of study.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

Extended LLB stream

FP9.1 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the second year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the first year of study.

FP9.2 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the third year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the second year of study.

FP9.3 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the fourth year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the third year of study.

FP9.4 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for any course prescribed for the fifth year of study unless he or she has completed all the courses prescribed for the fourth year of study.

NOTE: With permission of the relevant course convener and provided he or she is representing the Faculty at a national, regional or international moot court competition, a student at Intermediate Level may register for DOL3000X Moot Competition. The student may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.

FP9.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of Rules FP9.1, FP9.2, FP9.3 and FP9.4, a candidate who has only one half course outstanding from the first, second or third year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the second, third or fourth year respectively and repeat the outstanding half course in that year. This provision applies in respect of non-law and law courses inclusively.

A candidate who has only one course (or two half courses) outstanding from the fourth year may proceed, with permission of Senate, to the fifth year of study and repeat the outstanding course (or two half courses) in that year.

NOTE: Such candidates are advised that they must check lecture timetables to ensure that they do not register for courses inducing clashes either during the year or in the examinations. Students are required to fulfil all course requirements, including attendance, when repeating a course.

FP9.6 In addition to the provisions of Rules FP9.1, FP9.2, FP9.3 and FP9.4, a candidate who has failed more than one half course in the first, second or third year, and a candidate who has failed more than one course (or two half courses) in the fourth year, may register for not more than four full courses or the equivalent, which must include all the courses outstanding from the previous year of study.

General progress rules for all streams

Maximum number of courses in any year:

FP10.1 Except with permission of Senate, a candidate may not register for more than the equivalent of:

(i) nine half courses at the Preliminary Level
(ii) twelve half courses at the Intermediate Level
(iii) fourteen half courses at the Final Level.

NOTE: For the purposes of this rule, year 3 of the undergraduate extended curriculum stream is regarded as Preliminary Level.

FP10.2 Notwithstanding FP10.1 a student may take Humanities courses offered in the Summer Term.

Minimum requirements for re-admission:

FP11.1 A candidate may be refused permission to renew his/her registration in the Faculty if he/she fails:

(i) the equivalent of four half courses or more at any level; or
(ii) to complete all the courses prescribed for the degree within the prescribed time plus two years.

FP11.2 A student on an extended curriculum stream may be refused permission to renew his/her registration in the Faculty if he or she fails the equivalent of three half courses.

NOTE: F16.1 Supplementary examinations rule applies before the FP11 Minimum requirements for re-admission takes effect.

FP12 A student who is refused permission to re-register in the Faculty may appeal to the Faculty Readmission Appeal Committee in accordance with procedures laid down by Senate. The decision of the Faculty Readmission Appeal Committee will be final and will not be subject to further review or appeal.

Absence from examinations:

FP13.1 A student who fails to write the examination in a course for which he or she is registered will be deemed to have failed the course for the purposes of the minimum requirements for re-admission.

FP13.2 Senate may grant permission to a student to write a test on a different day where he or she is unable to write for medical reasons, or has religious objections, or political objections, or other good cause for not writing on the scheduled day or days. The grant of permission is entirely at the discretion of Senate, irrespective of the grounds (including medical) on which the application is made. The application must be made to the Dean within 7 days of the test. Exemption from a test or other course requirement is a concession to depart from degree requirements (see FP20).

Subminimum mark in final examinations:

FP14 A candidate must obtain a sub-minimum of 45% in each University examination in a course in order to obtain credit for that course, subject to Rule FP15.
ORAL EXAMINATIONS:

FP15.1 A candidate in his or her final year of study has the right to an oral examination in any course which he or she has failed (because he or she failed to obtain a mark of 50% overall or failed to obtain a mark of 45% in the final examination) if he or she has:

(i) scored 47% or more overall in that course and
(ii) scored 45% or more in the final examination in that course.

FP15.2 A candidate must be given at least three days’ (72 hours) notice of any oral examination.

FP15.3 Where possible, the external examiner will be present at an oral examination. If the external examiner is not able to be present, another examiner external to the course, who may be a member of staff, must be present.

NOTE: Oral examinations may be held over a weekend.

SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATIONS:

FP16.1 Senate may permit a candidate to write supplementary examinations in the equivalent of three half courses in any one year, provided that:

(i) he or she has reached a sufficiently high standard when failing such course(s); and
(ii) the courses are the only courses failed by him/her in that year.

NOTE: The decision on whether to award a supplementary examination will be taken by Senate on the recommendation of the Head of Department in which the course is offered. Students who are granted supplementary examinations will be required to re-write the whole formal examination component, including all papers, practicals, etc., which constituted the original formal examination component.

DEFERRED EXAMINATIONS:

FP17.1 Deferred examinations on medical or compassionate grounds are considered by a committee established by Senate for this purpose in terms of the general university rules. (See G25.1 in “General Rules for Degrees”, Handbook 3 General Rules and Policies). If the deferred examination is granted, the candidate will be required to write only those portions of the original examination which he or she missed.

FP17.2 Application must be made on the prescribed form obtainable at the Records Office in the Student Administration Building, within seven days from the first examination (written, oral, or practical) which the student missed or was unable to complete.

FP17.3 A student who becomes ill during an examination must proceed directly from the examination venue to the Student Health Service unless the nature of the illness makes this impossible.

FP17.4 Misreading of the examination timetable will not be condoned or accepted; neither is it a ground for a deferred examination. (See G18.9 in “General Rules for Degrees”, Handbook 3 General Rules and Policies.)

DISTINCTION:

FP18 The degree may be awarded cum laude or magna cum laude.

FP18.1 For the degree to be awarded cum laude a candidate must:

(i) complete the curriculum in the minimum time without failing any course, unless such failure is condoned by Senate;
(ii) obtain an average of 70% in all law courses completed at this University; and
(iii) obtain a First Class pass in at least six full law courses or the equivalent.
50 RULES FOR LLB DEGREE STREAMS (FROM 2012)

FP18.2 For the degree to be awarded magna cum laude a candidate must:
(i) complete the curriculum in the minimum time without failing any course, unless such failure is condoned by Senate;
(ii) obtain an average of 75% in all law courses completed at this University; and
(iii) obtain a First Class pass in at least nine full law courses, or the equivalent.

FP18.3 In the case of a candidate who has transferred from another university, Senate may in exceptional circumstances depart from the Rules relating to the number of courses for which a First Class pass must be obtained and award a degree cum laude or magna cum laude. Senate may do so only if, after having reviewed the academic record of the candidate at such other university, Senate is satisfied that the candidate would have fulfilled the requirements for the degree to be so awarded if he or she had completed the degree at this University.

NOTE: For an explanation on how averages are computed, please refer to the entry on “Dean’s Merit List”.

Concurrent registration:
FP19 Except with permission of Senate, a student may not register for any course taken at another university in the same year during which such student is registered at the University of Cape Town.

Deviations from the rules:
FP20 Senate may, on the recommendation of the Dean after consultation with the Head of Department concerned, permit a deviation from the rules governing the curriculum of a student.
A student may apply for such deviation by timeously submitting to the Dean a completed concession application form, obtainable from the Faculty Office.
NOTE: Senate’s authority to permit deviations from the rules governing the curriculum of an LLB student is delegated to the Admissions, Concessions and Credits Committee of the Law Faculty.

Revision of the rules:
FP21 Senate may at any time revise any rule.
Pattern of courses for the LLB degree streams

NOTE: In the absence of compelling circumstances a student may not register for the following optional courses in Intermediate Level:

Revenue Law, Trusts and Estate Planning, Competition Law, Constitutional Litigation, Current Issues in Constitutional Law, Conflict of Laws, Unjustified Enrichment and Cession, Moot Option.

* Candidates must ensure that their ‘first year’ non-law choices enable them to proceed to their ‘second year’ non-law choices. The Entrance requirements for the second year course should be checked with the appropriate Faculty.
COURSE OUTLINES (LLB)

Preliminary Level LLB

Non-Law courses: Undergraduate LLB

NOTE: Some of the non-Law courses required for the undergraduate LLB appear below. This is not an exhaustive list. Curriculum requirements for the different LLB streams are set out in the section Rules for LLB degree streams.

ELL1013F  ENGLISH LITERARY STUDIES
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 5
First-year, first-semester course, 3 lectures and 2 tutorials per week.
Course convener: Dr H Twidle
Entrance requirements: None.
Course outline:
What is ‘literature’ and how does it work? How can we read and write critically? What can close attention to plays, novels and poems tell us? How can we trace the shift from ‘English literature’ to ‘literature in English’ in a 21st-century world? This introduction to literary studies exposes students to a range of critical tools and methods for reading and writing about texts in the most interesting and thought-provoking ways possible. This course aims to introduce students to literary and rhetorical terms, and to basic issues in literary studies. Different literary genres will be explored and analysed, including the novel, poetry and drama. Students will be introduced to different kinds of critical writing and will engage in honing their own writing skills.
Lecture times: 2nd period, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.
DP requirements: None.
All written work to be handed in and at least 75% attendance at tutorials.
Assessment:
Lecture series: two-hour examination counts for 50% of the final mark; tutorial classwork counts for 50%.

ELL1016S  ENGLISH LITERARY STUDIES II
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 5
First-year, second-semester course, 3 lectures and 2 tutorials per week.
Course convener: Dr H Twidle
Entrance requirements: None.
Course outline:
What is ‘literature’ and how does it work? How can we read and write critically? What can close attention to plays, novels and poems tell us? How can we trace the shift from ‘English literature’ to ‘literature in English’ in a 21st-century world? This course extends the ideas and methods that have been introduced in ELL1013F, and covers a greater range of periods and genres than the first semester course. It also introduces a wider range of writing exercises, helping students to become fluent in a range of different scholarly registers: from research papers to more public models like the essay and the review.
Lecture times: 2nd period, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.
DP requirements: None.
All written work to be handed in and at least 75% attendance at tutorials.
Assessment:
Lecture series: two-hour examination counts for 50% of the final mark; tutorial classwork counts for 50%.
MAM1013F  LAW THAT COUNTS: QUANTITATIVE LITERACY FOR LAW
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 5
First year, first-semester course: 3 lectures, 1 tutorial and 1 computer tutorial per week.
Course convener: Ms P Lloyd
Entrance requirements: None.
(Students can be exempted ONLY on the basis of adequate performance in the Quantitative Literacy component of the National Benchmark Test.)
Course outline:
The course is intended to provide Law students with the necessary quantitative literacy to be able to understand, express and interpret appropriate quantitative ideas. The aim of the course is to give students an appreciation and understanding of mathematical and statistical ideas within real life and legal contexts. Course material will use real-life and legal situations, generally with a social justice focus, to extract concepts and principles using a problem-solving approach. Content to be covered will include percentages, ratios; interest and finance concepts; interpretation of graphs; manipulation of data; interpretation of statistics; computer skills in the form of spreadsheets. The lectures will be conducted in the form of workshop/lectures, the aim being to create a learning environment based on group-work and problem-solving.
Lecture times: 4th period.
DP requirements: Achieve a class record of 40% and 75% attendance at workshop/lectures and tutorials.
Assessment: Three written assessments, one assignment and assessment of computer tutorials contribute to the class record, counting 50%. The final examination consists of a written assessment and a computer assessment and counts 50%.

SLL1002F/S  WORD POWER
(A course in etymology)
(NOTE: This course may also be offered in Summer/Winter Term - please consult the Faculty.)
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 5
Offered in the first and second semesters, 3 lectures and 1 tutorial per week.
Course convener: Mrs G Symington
Entrance Requirements: None.
Course outline: The course consists of three components:
(1) words and ideas: focus on concepts deriving from ancient words and key words associated with them;
(2) word-building skills;
(3) style: focus on the use of English grammar.
Lecture times: 1st semester: 5th period; 2nd semester: 5th and 8th periods.
DP requirements: None.
Students must attend all tutorials, submit all tutorial assignments, and write all tests.
Assessment: One two-hour examination at the end of the semester counts for 50% of the final mark; coursework counts for 50%.

Law courses
PBL2000W  CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
NQF credits: 36 at HEQSF level 7
Preliminary Level, whole year course, three lectures per week, tutorials.
Course convener(s): Ms C Powell and Ms L Kohn

Entrance requirements: Undergraduate LLB students: concurrent registration with PBL2001H and RDL2002H.
Graduate LLB students: concurrent registration with RDL1003W, RDL1004H, RDL1008H, RDL2002H, RDL2003H.

Course outline:
The first part of the course provides an introduction to the history of South African constitutional law and basic concepts such as democracy, legitimacy, constitutionalism, federalism, separation of powers and the rule of law. It then considers the institutional framework provided by the South African Constitution in detail.
The second part of the course focuses on the protection of human rights in the Constitution. It examines the operation of the Bill of Rights and, using both SA cases and the jurisprudence of constitutional courts in other jurisdictions as well as the European Court of Human Rights, considers freedom of speech, equality and affirmative action, the protection of property rights and social and economic rights among other issues.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment:
November examination (3 hour) 60%
The year mark contributes the remaining 40% of the mark.

PBL2002W CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (EXTENDED CURRICULUM)

RDL1003W FOUNDATIONS OF SOUTH AFRICAN LAW
NQF credits: 36 at HEQSF level 5

Course convener(s): Associate Professor L Greenbaum (1st semester) and Professor A J Barnard-Naudé (2nd semester)

Entrance requirements: Undergraduate LLB students: concurrent registration with RDL1004H and RDL1008H.
Course outline:
The objectives of this course are that firstly students should develop foundational knowledge about the legal system in South Africa, including a knowledge of the history, sources of law, hierarchy of the courts, legal reasoning, with special attention to the doctrine of precedent, classifications of the law and fundamental legal concepts, as well as areas of the law relating to HIV and AIDS.
The course then provides students with an overview of the rules relating to interpretation of statutes, and their practical application.
Students engage in a review of the development of the culture of public law, through the fluctuating fortunes of the rule of law, followed by a section on the role of law in the transformation from Apartheid to constitutional democracy, transformative constitutionalism, and transformative legal culture.
Students’ writing and research skills are developed through tutorial exercises and written assignments.
A series of twelve workshops on analytical legal writing are presented and students are required to submit at least three of the four prescribed written exercises on which written feedback is provided.
The aim of this component of the course is to support students in their development of legal writing and argumentation skills.

DP requirements: Attendance at 80% of tutorials; attendance at court visits, submission of three writing exercises.

Assessment:
Coursework (1st semester)
- Tutorial assignment 1 1%
- March test 1.5%
- Tutorial assignment 2 2.5%

RDL1004H  COMPARATIVE LEGAL HISTORY
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 5
Course convener(s): Professor H Scott

Entrance requirements: Undergraduate LLB students: concurrent registration with RDL1003W and RDL1008H.

Course outline: The course serves as an introduction to the common law of property and obligations. Its main aims are, first, to provide both a map of the law and an understanding of the operation of the system of private law rules; and, second, to provide students with an understanding of the development of legal rules in their historical and comparative contexts.
During the first semester the focus is on the content and function of important institutions such as ownership, possession, contract, unjustified enrichment and delict, and on the relationship between these institutions. The tutorials are real-life problem-solving exercises which foster the ability to apply legal rules in an analytical manner. During the second semester we examine the history of a number of important legal rules, in each case beginning with their roots in Roman law and tracing their development into the 20th century, but investigating also the influence of other legal systems, particularly that of English law. This half of the course emphasises the contingency of legal rules and the factors which have refashioned the law in every age. It aims to equip students to engage critically with legal texts drawn from a wide range of contexts.

DOL3000X  MOOT COMPETITION
Intermediate year students selected to participate in national or international moot competitions may register for this course. To complete it successfully, students must submit adequate heads of argument and participate in a national or international moot competition presided over by more than one person. Students may be credited with 9 NQF credits and may be exempted from a seminars-and-research-paper elective (Moot Caput option) in the Final Level of the LLB.
Assessment: Heads of argument will count for 100% unless the supervisor agrees to allocate a percentage of the mark to oral presentation. The percentage of the mark allocated to oral presentation may not exceed 50%.

DOL3001X COMMUNITY SERVICE
Course convener(s): Ms J Yeats
It is a compulsory requirement for the LLB degree that, during the course of their degree, all Law students complete a total of 60 hours of unremunerated community service. The service must be legally orientated, must be offered through an approved service provider, and must provide a direct service or benefit to an underprivileged/disadvantaged/vulnerable group or person. An approved service provider is one that is approved by the Law Faculty’s Community Service Committee and includes: a) organisations that are directly affiliated to the Law Faculty; and b) organisations that are directly affiliated to Law Faculty based approved service providers. Programmes/projects of approved service providers and organisations that are linked to Law Faculty based approved service providers through which services are offered must also be approved by the Law Faculty’s Community Service Committee.

Students must be registered for community service in the year that it is performed. The usual practice is for students to register for the first time in Intermediate Year. However, the total of 60 hours may be performed in whole or in part in any year of the LLB, other than by students in the first year of the four year undergraduate LLB programme. Once students have completed a minimum of 20 hours they must complete the official timesheets and deliver these to the servicing officer for verification, signature and uploading. Students who have not completed all 60 hours of community service will not be permitted to graduate.

This course does not attract a fee. Details of approved service providers are available from the Community Service Vula website. Queries should be directed to Ms J Yeats, Room 5.05, Kramer Law Building, email: jacqueline.yeats@uct.ac.za or to Ms Toni Murphy, Room 6.14, Kramer Law Building, email: toni.murphy@uct.ac.za.

Students who successfully complete DOL4500H – Legal Practice are not required to do Community Service.

DOL3002X INTERMEDIATE YEAR SKILLS COMPONENT
Course convener(s): Professor A G Fagan
Course outline:
In the Intermediate year of the LLB, in addition to fulfilling course-specific requirements such as assignments and tests, every student must write one essay and one opinion, participate in a moot and attend all tutorials (or submit written work at the discretion of the course convener). This non-credit bearing course will ensure compliance with the Intermediate year requirements and also ensure that each student benefits from the skills component of the LLB.

Assessment: No formal assessment. Students are required to submit two written assignments (one essay and one opinion), participate in one moot and attend all tutorials.

PBL3001H INTERNATIONAL LAW
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 7
Intermediate Level, half course, whole year, 36 lectures and tutorials.
Course convener(s): Dr H Woolaver
Entrance requirements: All Preliminary Level courses to have been completed.
Course outline: The course addresses the following aspects of international law: introduction and sources; sovereignty; subjects and objects of international law; the relationship between international and municipal law; limitations upon the exercise of sovereignty; state responsibility; state succession; peaceful settlement of disputes; the use of force; the United Nations and international integration; the African Union and regional integration; prescriptive and enforcement jurisdiction in criminal matters; and international criminal law.

RDL3002H  AFRICAN CUSTOMARY LAW

NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 7

Intermediate Level, half course, whole year, 36 lectures and tutorials.

Course convener(s): Ms F Osman

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline: The course aims to facilitate an understanding of the sources, nature, status and role of customary law in South Africa’s pluralist legal system. The course provides an overview of the historical recognition of customary law during the colonial and apartheid periods to demonstrate the effect of these policies on customary law today. It analyses the Constitution’s recognition of customary law and impact the Constitution has had on both the application and development of customary law. The course further facilitates an understanding of legal theory with the objective of analysing whether customary law is consistent with modern legal theory. At a substantive level, the course examines the customary law regulating marriage, succession, traditional authority, land and dispute resolution. Lectures and tutorials are aimed at ensuring that students engage critically with customary law sources and are able to contextualise the law, politics and commercial interests surrounding traditional authority, community boundaries, land and resource management, dispute resolution forums, mining and pharmaceuticals.

DP requirements: Please refer to course handout.

Assessment:
- Optional moot/essay/opinion 20%
- Coursework 50% (30% if moot/essay/opinion)
- November examination (2 hour) 50%

- One November examination (3 hour) 50% or 60% or 70% or 80%

General Notes:

- Students who do not write the compulsory class test in June through illness will, on production of satisfactory medical certificate, be granted an oral aegrotat test scheduled in the second week of the second semester at a time to be arranged with the course convener. There will be no exemptions from the June test.
- The material tested in June will not be examined directly in the final examination but students will be expected to be familiar with that material for the final examination.
- If a student elects to do one or more of the year mark options, the proportion of that student's examination mark to the overall final mark for the course will be adjusted accordingly.

Refer to the course outline distributed at the beginning of the year for further details.

DOL4000H INTEGRATIVE ASSESSMENT PROJECT

NQF credits: 0

It is a requirement for the LLB degree that all Final Level students register for and pass the Integrative Assessment Project.

Course convener(s): Dr A Hutchison

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Objective: The objectives of the project are to assess students' ability, with the benefit of group interaction, to find and apply the relevant law to a fact complex that integrates a variety of areas of law taught as separate subjects in the LLB curriculum; and to demonstrate an overall grasp of South African law and how it operates in real life situations.

Course outline: The Integrative Assessment Project is set as a six-hour project to be completed in the library under open-book examination conditions during the mid-semester break in the second semester. Students registered for the project are divided into groups. Each group is allocated to a day and time in the assessment period. The group is assigned a project question and has a five-hour preparation period followed immediately by a one-hour oral examination. During the preparation period, the group has the opportunity to discuss the project question to identify the legal issues raised and then to research appropriate responses. In the oral examination, members of the group will be asked questions about the project. Each student is assessed individually based on the answers they provide to questions put to them. Each student is graded as a pass/fail. The grading is done by a panel comprising academic staff members.

Further information about the Project is provided at Registration.

PBL4001W ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

NQF credits: 36 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, whole year course, six tutorials and 72 lectures.

Course convener(s): Professor H M Corder

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline: This course deals primarily with the legal rules surrounding the exercise of public power, both as they empower and regulate. In particular it deals with the role of the courts in controlling the exercise of public power, but it also looks at alternatives to judicial review as other important ways of holding public power to account. After a general introduction, an overview of administrative law, the course focuses on the sources, types and extent of administrative power, and the scope of judicial review (both in theory and practice) in a democratic state. The course takes into account the combined effect of the Constitution and legislation on administrative law. The second part of the course focuses mainly on the grounds of review which have been developed by the courts, most of which are found in s 6 of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act.

RDL4005H  AFRICAN CUSTOMARY LAW

NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 8

Course convener(s): Ms F Osman

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
The course aims to facilitate an understanding of the sources, nature, status and role of customary law in South Africa’s pluralist legal system. The course provides an overview of the historical recognition of customary law during the colonial and apartheid periods to demonstrate the effect of these policies on customary law today. It analyses the Constitution’s recognition of customary law and impact the Constitution has had on both the application and development of customary law. The course further facilitates an understanding of legal theory with the objective of analysing whether customary law is consistent with modern legal theory. At a substantive level, the course examines the customary law regulating marriage, succession, traditional authority, land and dispute resolution. Lectures and tutorials are aimed at ensuring that students engage critically with customary law sources and are able to contextualise the law, politics and commercial interests surrounding traditional authority, community boundaries, land and resource management, dispute resolution forums, mining and pharmaceuticals.

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor D Collier and Ms K Idensohn

Course outline:
The regulation of commercial activities is seen as a necessary measure to manage risk and mediate the conflicting interests of parties. Increasingly however, formalistic legal (or state) regulation of commercial activities is under pressure to give way to ‘softer’ forms of governance. This course in regulation and governance introduces students to (i) basic economic perspectives on regulation and governance and global trends in this regard; (ii) basic sociological perspectives on the regulation of commercial activities; which will provide students with an understanding of various regulatory models – from the traditional command-and-control to more reflexive/responsive models – and will equip students with the tools to critique the contemporary regulatory regime and its impact on commercial activity.

CML4602S  COMPETITION LAW

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Judge D M Davis

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:

In this course we examine the regulation of competition under the ‘new’ Competition Act 89 of 1998. The focus of the course is on the statutory regulation of competition and the underlying policy considerations which the Act aims to address. In particular, we examine the practices that firms are prohibited from engaging in under the Act, and the way in which the Act regulates the merger of firms. The content of the Act has been heavily influenced by European and American Antitrust Law and practice. Since the South African competition authorities have not yet had an opportunity to develop an extensive jurisprudence of their own, we look to comparative sources for guidance as to how the Act might come to be interpreted and applied.

Course convener(s): Ms Y S Moodley

Prerequisites: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed; except that Intermediate Level students may register for this course if they achieve an average of 65% in the Preliminary Level law courses and the Director of the Law Clinic admits them into the course.

Course outline:
This course offers students their first opportunity of working with real clients and conducting actual litigation, under guidance of the attorneys at the UCT Law Clinic. Students attend two lectures per week on practical subjects and also conduct ongoing cases on behalf of their clients. In addition, each student participates in a Mock Trial which is based on an actual Law Clinic case and is argued before an actual Magistrate. During the course of the year students attend approximately six evening clinics where they consult with clients and take on new cases.

At the end of this course students will be able to • Conduct a proper consultation with a client;
• Draft letters and communicate effectively with clients, attorneys and other parties;
• Draft civil pleadings in actions and applications;
• Manage a typical attorney's file;
• Examine and cross-examine witnesses and present oral argument; and
• Conduct most cases undertaken by the UCT Law Clinic.

PBL4504F INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW AND AFRICA

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Dr H Woolaver

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:

This course provides students with a firm understanding of the key aspects of international criminal law, focusing on the impact and application of this body of law in the African continent. The first section of the course will provide an overview of the historical development of international criminal law, from its origins in the Nuremberg Tribunal, culminating in the establishment of the International Criminal Court. The second section of the course will examine the legal elements of the core international crimes: genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes, and the crime of aggression. Section three will provide an analysis of the modes of liability of international crimes, focusing on liability for the commission of group crimes and superior responsibility. The final section will detail the procedural aspects of enforcement, including jurisdiction of domestic and international courts and the issue of immunity of senior State officials. This section will emphasise prosecution of international crimes in the domestic courts of South Africa, and will also consider the validity of domestic amnesty agreements for international crimes. Case studies throughout the course will be based on situations in the African continent, to draw out the particular challenges and possibilities for enforcement of international criminal law on the continent.

PBL4505F INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND THE CONSTITUTION
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.
Course convener(s): Ms M du Plessis
Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.
Course outline:
The course aims to examine the relationship between International Human Rights Law and the South African Constitution, particularly how international human rights norms are received and enforced under the Constitution and the extent to which the South African Bill of Rights can and does give effect to international human rights norms. It will provide participants with the opportunity to consider and critically reflect upon the relationship between international and municipal law, the development of international human rights norms and standards, the tension between universal norms and cultural specificity, the content and interpretations of the South African Bill of Rights and the suitability of domestic Bills of Rights as vehicles through which to receive and implement international human rights law.

PBL4506F REFUGEE AND IMMIGRATION LAW
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.
Course convener(s): Ms F Khan
Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.
Course outline:
This course will focus primarily on the basic criteria for the attainment, denial and withdrawal of refugee status and the rights and treatment of refugees in accordance with the South African Refuges Act (130 of 1998) and other relevant legislation and international instruments. A comprehensive analysis of the South African Refuges Act as well as relevant sections of the Immigration Act (13 of 2002) will be undertaken. Furthermore case-law of the international, regional and national courts will provide a understanding of how refugee law is interpreted and implemented in South Africa as well as in other jurisdictions.

PBL4601S CONSTITUTIONAL LITIGATION
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.
Course convener(s): Judge D M Davis
Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.
Course outline:
The object of this course is to gain greater insight into constitutional law by means of learning about litigation. The course focuses on one key area (for example in 1997 abortion was the chosen topic). The course examines key constitutional issues (e.g., life, equality, privacy, dignity, bodily integrity) relevant to this issue. A study is also made of the rules of the Constitutional Court. Thereafter students are divided into legal teams and with assistance are required to prepare heads of argument as if the matter is to be heard before the Constitutional Court. The matter is then argued fully. In this way the critical principles of constitutional law and the requirements for constitutional litigation are taught.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment: The mark is given for group work (to be negotiated with the class) based on heads of argument and oral argument.

PBL4602F CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND THE CONSTITUTION

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Ms K Phelps

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:

This course provides students with the opportunity to explore selected advanced issues in criminal justice, punishment and the manner in which the Constitution impacts the South African criminal justice system. Students will use the group discussions to develop research skills and produce research papers. It ties in with compulsory courses in the LLB, such as criminal law, criminal procedure, evidence and constitutional law as well as with criminology.

PBL4603F PUBLIC LAW (not offered in 2015)

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor M H Cheadle

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:

The aim of the course is to provide a discussion group for students who wish to explore a select field of public law not covered in other optional courses. Students wishing to do research in any area that broadly falls under the rubric of public law may join this group. This select field may include international law, constitutional law, human rights and administrative law, but students are encouraged to choose research in other, more specialised areas. The group starts with a series of seminars that provide a background to research in this area of public law. During this period students also write and discuss their research proposals. In the remaining seminars students will present their papers to the group for discussion.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment:

- 20% of the final mark is awarded for class participation, which consists of submission of the research proposal, draft(s) and contributions to class discussions
- 80% of the final mark is awarded for the final research paper.

PBL4604F SOCIAL JUSTICE AND THE CONSTITUTION

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Ms M du Plessis
Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
The course is intended to give students an opportunity to engage with a number of discrete constitutional law problems in more detail than is possible in the general introductory Constitutional Law course offered in the preliminary year. The course is aimed at providing a space for contestation, critical discussion and reflection on important constitutional law issues and the manner in which lawyers, judges and legal academics engage with such issues against a broader socio-political background. Aiming to go beyond a black letter law discussion of constitutional law principles and legal precedent (but not ignoring such principles and precedent), the course encourages students to ask questions about the nature of constitutional adjudication; the interaction between law, politics and values; and the various ways in which social and political issues should be dealt with from a constitutional perspective.

PBL4605F WOMEN AND LAW (not offered in 2015)
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor D Smythe

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
The course aims to introduce students to literature and debates on the relationship between women and the law, allowing them to examine specific aspects of South African law in the light of feminist theory. In the seminars we consider feminist theories of law and the position of women in South African Law. For these seminars students are required to read and reflect on prescribed texts and participate in discussions. Attention is also paid to research skills and research methodology. Students can research a subject of their choice. Possible subjects include feminist and social theory; the constitutional protection of women; family law including divorce, maintenance, adoption and custody, abortion and surrogate motherhood; the law relating to violent crimes against women, including rape and domestic violence; employment law, including sex discrimination, equal pay, maternity benefits, sexual harassment and domestic workers; aspects of customary law; and the law governing censorship and pornography.

RDL4501S HIV/AIDS, BIOETHICS AND THE LAW
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor A Pope

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
This elective introduces students to an interdisciplinary approach to theoretical, legal and ethical issues which arise when medicine, science, the state and the courts must deal with human responses to illness and suffering, in particular, the HIV/AIDS pandemic and related topics in South Africa. The aim is to promote analytical and critical reflection on the relationship between ethics, politics and the law, especially as they relate to responsibility, autonomy, and paternalism from a human Rights perspective.

RDL4503F SELECTED STUDIES IN ROMAN LAW

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor H Scott

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
This course affords Final Year LLB students the opportunity to pursue further the study of Roman law begun in Preliminary Year with Comparative Legal History. It centres on the close reading and analysis of selected titles from Justinian’s Digest (in translation) in the areas of sale, unjustified enrichment, damage to property and injury to personality, with the assistance of selected literature (in English).

The principal aim of the course is to provide students with the opportunity to deepen and refine their knowledge of the Roman law as it was in the high classical period. However, there is also a comparative goal: knowledge of what was achieved by the classical jurists affords insight into modern legal systems, particularly those which have their roots in Roman law. Finally, the course seeks to promote a deeper understanding of key doctrinal issues in modern South African private law, building on the Contract and Delict courses completed in Intermediate Year and complementing the optional final-year course Unjustified Enrichment.

Please note that a knowledge of Latin is not required.

RDL4504S SOUTH AFRICAN MINERAL LAW: THEORY, CONTEXT AND REFORM

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor H Mostert

Entrance requirements: Pre-requisite: RDL2002H (Property Law) at Preliminary B level; Co-requisite PBL4001W (Administrative Law).

Course outline:
In enabling study of the theory and practice of mineral law, this course focuses on building understanding of the complexities of South African mineral law in its historical, constitutional and political setting. It introduces the topic by dealing with the origins and historical development of mineral law, and the core concepts thereof. It deals specifically with the nature and content of rights to minerals and the current regulatory framework for these rights. In doing so, it analyses critically the extent of current regulatory controls and / or lack thereof, focusing specifically on provisions dealing with social and environmental responsibility and the recording of rights to minerals. This allows students to gain a critical understanding of the practical context in which mineral law operates, and the need for reform.

RDL4505F  THE LAW OF CESSION
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor D B Hutchison

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
Law graduates entering legal practice (particularly in a commercial law firm) will find themselves immediately confronted with issues relating to the transfer of personal rights by cession. Most wealth today is held in the form of personal rights or claims against other parties (including banks, employers, investment and insurance companies, pension funds and the like) and much commercial activity concerns the transfer or pledging of such rights. The course aims to familiarise students with all aspects of the law of cession – a complex and challenging subject – to prepare them for commercial legal practice.

RDL4506S  UNJUSTIFIED ENRICHMENT (not offered in 2015)
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor H Scott

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
Unjustified enrichment constitutes the third part - with contract and delict - of the law of obligations. Thus it is essential to an integrated understanding of private law. Moreover, during the last twenty years it has emerged as an important area of commercial litigation throughout the common-law world, and has become the focus of considerable comparative private-law scholarship, especially in England, Scotland, Canada, Australia and most recently the United States. South Africa has not been immune to these trends: enrichment is increasingly the subject of litigation, not only in the high courts and Supreme Court of Appeal but now also in the Constitutional Court, and no fewer than four new books on the subject have appeared recently. A knowledge of unjustified enrichment is thus becoming increasingly important, both from a theoretical perspective and for the purposes of legal practice, whether in South Africa or elsewhere.

RDL4507F  CONFLICT OF LAWS
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor A Barratt

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
This course aims to introduce students to the rules and principles governing conflict of laws questions. How should South African courts decide cases which contain a foreign element? For example: a South African company offering hunting safaris suffers economic loss because of allegedly defamatory statements published and read in the United States. Does a South African court have jurisdiction over this matter? Should the court apply the South African law of delict, or must it apply American tort law? In this course, we will examine the general principles governing application of foreign law and will focus particularly on conflict of law questions that arise in the context of delict, contract, property, succession, marriage, and divorce.

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor H Mostert

Entrance requirements: Pre-requisite: RDL2002H (Property Law) at Preliminary B level.

Course outline:

This course aims to deepen LLB students’ understanding of certain key aspects of property law by enabling them to explore the implications of important issues in one of three specialised property law fields.

Upon completion of this course, students must demonstrate their ability to engage critically with an identified issue in property law by researching independently, producing a written analysis, and presenting their findings orally.

RDL4602S CIVIL JUSTICE REFORM

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8

Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor M Paleker

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:

Aims and objectives

The aim of the course is to consider contemporary debates in civil justice and civil justice reform and to engage with the different methods of civil dispute resolution.

Course content

This course will consider the theoretical and philosophical debates around access to civil justice. To this extent, the writings of the famous Venetian proceduralist, Prof Mauro Cappelletti, and many other jurists will be studied to give content to s 34 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996. Secondly, there will be an analysis of the strengths or weaknesses of the South African civil justice system, and how foreign jurisdictions have dealt with challenges in civil justice. For example, the Woolf reforms in England and Wales will be considered. Thirdly, different litigation models will be studied to understand the similarities and differences in adjudication styles between civil law and common law systems.

Final Level, half course, first semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor A G Fagan and Associate Professor A M Price

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
This course aims to deepen LLB students’ understanding of the nature of law, adjudication, and the relationship of morality and politics to each, by getting them to explore the implications of important debates in jurisprudence for various aspects of and issues in modern South African law. Questions arising in constitutional theory and the philosophical foundations of civil law, criminal law, and causation, for example, may be addressed.

RDL4604S LAW AND POST-APARTEID LITERATURE
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Professor A J Barnard-Naudé

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.

Course outline:
This course deals with the long established relationship between law and literature in the context of post-apartheid society. If, as Adam Small is quoted as having said, ‘only literature can perform the miracle of reconciliation’, then this begs the question as regards the role of positive law in a post-apartheid society. Do law and literature in a post-apartheid context complement each other, supplement each other, or are their goals and hopes entirely divorced? The course focuses on prose and poetry that addresses the theme of reconciliation (Antjie Krog, Ingrid De Kock, Wally Serote, Carrol Clarkson, etc) and juxtaposes and compares it with the legal discourse on reconciliation and reparation.

RDL4605S LEGAL PLURALISM, RELIGION, CULTURE AND HUMAN RIGHTS
NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 8
Final Level, half course, second semester, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor W Amien

Entrance requirements: All Preliminary and Intermediate Level courses to have been completed.
Course outline:
This course aims to provide an understanding of how pluralities of laws operate in a multicultural society such as South Africa, at official and unofficial levels. By drawing on legislation and case law, attention is paid to historically marginalised religious, cultural and customary laws including personal and family laws emanating from (but not limited to) Islam, Hinduism, Judaism and traditional and non-traditional customary laws. Students are encouraged to consider how non-dominant systems of personal and family laws can be addressed within a secular legal framework and what the human rights implications of that are. Comparative perspectives are offered to enhance an understanding of the debates and applications of multiple legal systems in the international arena.

The course comprises:
1. Theoretical foundations of legal pluralism
2. Selected religious, cultural and customary laws including (but not limited to): Islamic law; Hindu law; Judaic law; Christian law; Customary laws
3. Manifestations of plural laws through religions, cultures, customs and secular laws in the private law domain including (but not limited to): Marriage; Divorce; Succession
4. Models of recognition of religious, cultural and customary laws
5. Human rights implications of official and unofficial application of religious, cultural and customary laws
6. Comparative perspectives

SLL1134H ISIXHOSA FOR LAW

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 5

Final Level, half course, whole year, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Dr M Smouse and Mrs N Ngalo

Entrance requirements: None. A student may only register for this course if Xhosa is not one of his/her home languages and provided further that he/she did not complete Xhosa on any level in the final year of high school.

Course outline:
This course is a vocation-specific course that introduces law students to communication skills required for a successful interaction between a law professional and a client. The course takes an integrated approach to language learning through an incorporation of law-related interactions such as: child maintenance, credit agreements (i.e. default on…), divorce, evictions, wills, drawing up contracts, and theft. Since the primary focus of this course is on communication skills, the areas of pronunciation, vocabulary development and language structure that is required for successful interaction with clients will be emphasised. The course also aims to familiarise students with common cross-cultural miscommunication in relation to various legal contexts.

DP requirements: Students are expected to attend at least 80% of lectures and complete all assessments and projects.

Assessment:
- Year work (written work and oral tests, portfolio activities): 50%

SLL1135H AFRIKAANS COMMUNICATION FOR LAW

NQF credits: 9 at HEQSF level 5

Final Level, half course, whole year, two lectures per week.

Course convener(s): Dr J Claassen

Entrance requirements: At least 3 years of Afrikaans at secondary school level or a pass in SLL1042F/S. First language speakers of Afrikaans are not permitted to register for this course. A student may only register for this course if Afrikaans is not one of his/her home languages and provided further that he/she did not complete Afrikaans on any level in the final year of high school.

Course outline:
A course for non-native speakers of Afrikaans, who are registered for BA (Law) or the LLB degree. The course aims to develop the necessary verbal communicative competency in Afrikaans, which is required during interaction between a lawyer and a client. The course equips students with skills to comprehensively conduct and sustain lawyer-client consultations. The content of the course is aimed at complementing the BA (Law) and LLB curriculum. The topics covered overlap with those encountered at legal aid clinics and include, but are not restricted to, child support, children’s rights, family violence, divorce, backyard dwellings and municipal issues.

DP requirements: 75% of all classes must be attended and all assessments must be completed.

Moot options
CML4606H Moot Caput Department of Commercial Law
RDL4609H Moot Caput Department of Private Law
PBL4606H Moot Caput Department of Public Law

Course outline:
The option of doing a moot is available in each department in the Faculty. Students should identify the department in which they wish to moot and may register for a moot only with the permission of a member of the department concerned. Usually departments will require at least two students before a moot option will be offered.

To complete a moot option successfully, students must submit adequate heads of argument and participate in moot proceedings presided over by more than one person, at least one of whom should not be a member of the Faculty.

Assessment: Heads of argument count for 100% unless the supervisor agrees to allocate a percentage of the mark to oral presentation. The percentage of the mark allocated to oral presentation may not exceed 50%.

Independent Research Paper electives
CML4401H Commercial Law
PBL4401H Public Law
PBL4402H Criminal Justice
RDL4401H Private Law

Course outline:
1. A student may do an Independent Research Paper instead of the seminars-and-research-paper elective. Students prepare their papers by working individually under the supervision of a member of the Faculty.
2. Independent research papers should be 8000 words in length.
3. The final title of research to be done under individual supervision of a member of staff must be approved by registration day.
4. All papers must be completed by the end of the mid-term vacation in the second semester of the final LLB year (i.e. mid-September).
5. Students may be expected to attend a number of general lectures on writing and structuring research papers at the start of the academic year.
6. Students may do more than one research paper (subject to the usual conditions). Each research paper counts 9 credits. All research papers must comply with the requirements for the research papers written in fulfilment of the Final Level research component of the LLB.
POSTGRADUATE QUALIFICATIONS

The Faculty of Law at the University of Cape Town has been offering approved courses for Master of Laws, Master of Philosophy and Postgraduate Diploma purposes since the early 1980s. These courses have been introduced and expanded to meet the particular demands of and to complement the research work undertaken by specialised institutes and research units associated with the Faculty.

The growth in the number of courses in recent years has emphasised the need to produce more integrated programmes. Simultaneously, changes in the social and political environment in South Africa have presented the Faculty with the opportunity to develop its postgraduate studies programme to meet a new set of challenges within an African and international context.

With these ends in mind, the School for Advanced Legal Studies was created in 1992 as the home for existing and planned elements of postgraduate law studies at UCT. It is located within the Faculty of Law, and has assumed responsibility for the co-ordination of all higher coursework teaching. Its objectives extend to the promotion of research and academic exchanges with students and staff at other universities.

Rules and requirements for degrees and diplomas

For LLM and MPhil purposes, students must select and complete four courses or their equivalent and submit a dissertation of not more than 25,000 words. Full-time students are expected to complete the requirements within an academic year (February to November or July to June), and part-time students are expected to complete the requirements within two years, save that the dissertation may be submitted by not later than the Friday before the first term starts, the year following the completion of the coursework for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June.

For named LLM (Professional Master's degree) purposes, students must select and complete four courses or their equivalent and complete a research project comprising four research tasks. Full-time students are expected to complete the requirements within an academic year (February to November or July to June), and part-time students are expected to complete the requirements within two years.

For Postgraduate Diploma purposes, students must select and complete two courses or their equivalent and submit a research paper of not more than 12,500 words by the Friday before the first term starts, the year following first registration for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June. Diploma students may, subject to relevant admission criteria, apply to convert their registration to the LLM programme.

Courses will typically involve between 3-4 contact hours per week, although teaching periods may vary from course to course. Details may be obtained from the course convener in each instance.

The Postgraduate Centre

The Postgraduate Centre was recently established in the Otto Beit Building, Upper Campus. This state-of-the-art facility houses the executive committee of the Postgraduate Students Association (PGSA) as well as the Postgraduate Funding Office. The centre is equipped with IT facilities and includes a seminar room. This facility is open to all Master's and PhD students as well as postdoctoral research fellows. Postgraduates are encouraged to make full use of this centre, in particular the Funding Office, which administers all postgraduate bursaries and scholarships. The Postgraduate Centre may be contacted at gradcentre@uct.ac.za or visited at www.pgfo.uct.ac.za.
RULES FOR POSTGRADUATE QUALIFICATIONS

Postgraduate Diploma in Law

These rules must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies.

The following are the rules for all Postgraduate Diploma in Law programmes; additional rules applicable to certain Diplomas are included after these generally applicable rules.

FG1 The Faculty offers a Postgraduate Diploma in Law which is examined by coursework and research paper, subject to these rules.

Specialist areas:

FG2 The Postgraduate Diploma in Law may be conferred without specialisation ("General" below) or in any of the following specialist areas:

The area of general specialisation will be determined by the field of law in which the research paper and one course for the Postgraduate Diploma have been fulfilled. Rules regarding areas of specialisation, in addition to those below, appear in the Postgraduate Study Programmes section of this book.

Admission:

FG3 A person may be considered for admission as a candidate for the Postgraduate Diploma in Law if:

1. he or she has a law degree of the University, or an equivalent degree of another university or institution recognised by Senate for this purpose;
2. he or she is a graduate of this University, or of any other university or institution recognised by Senate for this purpose, who has completed such course or courses as in the opinion of Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law, qualify him/her for admission to the Diploma;
3. he or she is an enrolled advocate or attorney of the High Court of South Africa;
4. in the case of the Diploma in Tax Law, a person who has passed the final professional chartered accountancy examination of the Public Accountants and Auditors Board of South Africa, or an examination which, in the opinion of the Board and of Senate, is of equivalent standard, or a Bachelor of Commerce graduate of the University who has completed a course in taxation;

5. he or she holds any other academic or professional qualification which Senate has approved as a ground for admission to the Diploma; or

6. a person who has satisfied Senate, by means of such test as may be prescribed, that his/her qualifications are equivalent to any one of those enumerated in FG3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4 and 3.5 above;

7. in the case of an applicant whose primary language is not English, he or she has submitted evidence of proficiency in English of a sufficiently high standard to undertake postgraduate studies in Law. Evidence of proficiency may include one of the following:
   - a recent score (obtained within 3 - 5 years before application for admission) of at least 570 (paper-based test) or 230 (computer-based test) or 88 (Internet-based test) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
   - a recent overall band score of 7.0 (with no individual element of the test scoring below 6.0) on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
   - a score of at least 75% on the Academic Literacy component of the National Benchmark Test (NBT).

An applicant may be required to pass a law-specific English proficiency test before being permitted to register in the Faculty.

NOTES:
1. With regard to the Postgraduate Diploma in Law in Shipping Law, and with reference to Rule FG3 above,
   (a) in principle, a Master's certificate, together with sufficient appropriate experience in the Shipping field, may serve as a ground for admission
   (b) the essential requirement for admission in the absence of a degree is the possession of sufficient appropriate experience in the field in question, whether evidenced by possession of a Master's certificate or not.

2. The following general policy exists currently with regard to applicants: a good LLB (average mark in the 60% to 70% range) is the minimum qualification. Subsequent study and/or related work experience is a recommendation. For those with a BProc degree, an average mark greater than 70% is required, unless there is evidence of additional/subsequent work experience appropriate to the courses chosen.

Obtaining the diploma:
FG4 A candidate must undertake advanced study in two approved courses (or the equivalent) and complete a research paper on an approved topic under the guidance of a supervisor appointed by Senate. A candidate must obtain at least 50% for each course and at least 50% for the research paper.

Examination:
FG5.1 A candidate may be required to submit prepared assignments, participate in debates or moots, and to undergo a written and/or oral examination in all or any of his/her approved courses and/or research paper.

FG5.2 The candidate must submit a research paper of not more than 12 500 words on a subject approved by Senate which must be of legal interest and related to one of the approved courses.

FG5.3 A candidate who has failed any approved course with 47% or more has the right to an oral examination in that course.

FG5.4 Any such oral examination shall be convened upon a minimum of three days notice given by the Faculty to the candidate, and shall be held at the Faculty in the presence of two examiners, one of whom shall be external to the course concerned, but who may be a member of the Faculty staff.

FG5.5 Supplementary examinations are not set for any of the approved courses.

Credit and exemption:

FG6.1 Senate may accept examinations in an appropriate course of equivalent weight passed at this or another university recognised for the purpose of exempting a candidate from one course of the work prescribed in Rule FG4; provided that Senate may, in advance, approve an individual course or courses offered by another university, as a course which, if completed, will allow credit for and exemption from a course prescribed for the Postgraduate Diploma in Law. Such approval will be valid for one year but may be renewed on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law.

FG6.2 Notwithstanding Rule FG6.1, a candidate will not be admitted to the Diploma unless he or she has completed at least one course and the research paper at this University.

Date for submission of research paper:

FG7.1 The proposal for the research paper must be submitted to the supervisor no later than the time at which half the coursework requirements of the degree have been fulfilled.

FG7.2 The research paper must be submitted no later than the Friday before the first term of the year following the year of registration for the Postgraduate Diploma in Law for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June.

Exclusion from a course

Minimum requirements for readmission to the diploma:

FG8.1 A candidate must pass one of the two courses in order to qualify for readmission.

FG8.2 Should a candidate fail a course he or she may only continue by taking another course, unless Senate gives permission to repeat the course failed or study for a longer period.

FG8.3 A candidate who fails the research paper may be permitted by Senate on one occasion only to submit another research paper, which must be on a different topic.

Exclusion from the diploma:

FG9.1 A candidate who fails two courses or the same course twice will not be allowed to reregister for any other Diploma course, except with the permission of Senate. For the purpose of this Rule, a double course shall be regarded as one course.

FG9.2 A candidate who fails the research paper twice or does not submit the research paper timeously, having been given an extension of time (see FG7) will not be allowed to reregister for either the Diploma nor any further postgraduate study, except with the permission of Senate.

Duration:

FG10 Except with the permission of Senate:

The coursework component of Postgraduate Diploma in Law must be completed within one academic year and the research paper in accordance with Rule FG7.

Research paper:

FG11 The research paper must be satisfactory in arrangement and expression and must be printed. A candidate must submit three copies (temporary bindings) and an electronic version directly to the Faculty Office.

The following statement must appear on the title page:

Research paper presented for the approval of Senate in fulfilment of part of the requirements for the (qualification for which a student is registered) in approved courses and a research paper. The other part of the requirement for this qualification was the completion of a programme of courses. I hereby declare that I have read and understood the regulations governing the submission of (qualification for which student is registered) research papers, including those relating to length and plagiarism, as contained in the rules of this University, and that this research paper conforms to those regulations.

Note: One unbound copy is lodged with Special Collections, Chancellor Oppenheimer Library. The electronic version should be in Adobe (.pdf) or Word (.doc) format. Free software for the pdf format is on the Law fileserver and is also available from the School for Advanced Legal Studies.

Publication of research paper:
FG12 No publication may, without the prior permission of the University, contain a statement that the published material was or is to be submitted in part or in full for the Diploma.

Distinction:
FG13.1 The Diploma may be awarded with distinction.
FG13.2 For the Diploma to be awarded with distinction, a candidate must:
(a) submit the research paper no later than the Friday before the first term of the year following the completion of the coursework for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June; and
(b) obtain an average mark of at least 75%, the research paper counting for 50% of the examination.

Exemption from or modification of rules:
FG14 Any exemption from or modification of these rules must be approved specifically by Senate.

NOTE: Conversion to LLM degree
Candidates who have registered for the Postgraduate Diploma in Law may, subject to the requisite qualifications and acceptability, upgrade their registration to the LLM programme. Such candidates should apply in writing to change their registration by no later than 31 AUGUST. They will be informed whether their application has been accepted or not. Candidates who have had the Diploma conferred on them may NOT convert to registration for the LLM retrospectively (see Rule FMC6.3). Students are referred to the Notes which appear immediately below the LLM degree rules, which are applicable to the Diploma in equal measure.

Master's degrees

Master of Laws (LLM) in approved courses and a research project (Professional Master’s degree)
These rules must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies.

FPM1 The Faculty offers a Master of Laws (LLM) degree which is examined by coursework and a research project, subject to these rules in particular, and the following named Professional Master’s degrees are:

Admission:
FPM2 A person may be considered for admission as a candidate for one of the named Professional Master of Laws degrees if -

2.1 he or she has a law degree of the University or an equivalent degree of another University or institution recognised by the Senate for the purpose; or

2.2 he or she has in any other manner attained a level of competence, which, in the opinion of Senate, on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law, is adequate for the purposes of admission as a candidate for the degree.

2.3 in the case of an applicant whose primary language is not English, he or she has submitted evidence of proficiency in English of a sufficiently high standard to undertake postgraduate studies in Law. Evidence of proficiency may include one of the following:

- a recent score (obtained within 3 - 5 years before application for admission) of at least 570 (paper-based test) or 230 (computer-based test) or 88 (Internet-based test) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

- a recent overall band score of 7.0 (with no individual element of the test scoring below 6.0) on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

- a score of at least 75% on the Academic Literacy component of the National Benchmark Test (NBT).

An applicant may be required to pass a law-specific English proficiency test before being permitted to register in the Faculty.

Obtaining the degree:
FPM3.1 A candidate must undertake advanced study in four approved courses (or the equivalent) and complete a research project comprising four independent research tasks (or two tasks for the Master of Laws in Tax Law) demonstrating innovation or professional expertise, each linked to one of the four approved courses undertaken.

The research project comprises a third of the total credits for the degree. The mark for the courses is the average of the marks obtained for the individual courses, and the mark for the research project is the average of the marks obtained for the four research tasks.

To be awarded the degree a candidate must obtain a mark of at least 50% for each course and a mark of at least 50% for the research project.

FPM3.2 A candidate may be required to submit prepared assignments, participate in debates or moots, and undergo a written and/or oral examination in all or any of his/her approved courses.

FPM3.3 A candidate who has failed any approved course with 47% or more has the right to an oral examination in that course.

FPM3.4 Any such oral examination shall be convened upon a minimum of three days' notice given by the Faculty to the candidate, and shall be held at the Faculty in the presence of two examiners, one of whom shall be external to the course concerned, but who may be a member of the Faculty staff.

FPM3.5 Supplementary examinations are not set for any of the approved courses.

FPM3.6 Should a candidate fail a course he or she may only continue by taking another course, unless Senate gives permission to repeat the course failed.
RULES FOR POSTGRADUATE QUALIFICATIONS

FPM3.7 Each research task must be submitted for assessment by no later than the day on which examinations end in the semester in which the course from which the research task is drawn runs.

FPM3.8 A candidate who fails the research project may be permitted by Senate on one occasion only to submit another research task, which must be drawn from a course which the candidate has passed but has failed the research task linked to that course. Unless otherwise permitted, the task must be submitted by no later than the Friday before the first term of the year following the completion of the coursework. Where the candidate has completed the coursework in June, the research task must be submitted for assessment by no later than the day on which examinations end in the second semester.

Credit and exemption:
FPM4.1 For the purpose of granting credit for and exempting a candidate from a maximum of two of the courses prescribed under FPM3, Senate may accept examinations in an appropriate course of equivalent weight passed at this or another university or institution recognised for this purpose; provided that Senate may, in advance, approve a course or courses, which, if completed successfully, will allow credit for and exemption from a course or courses prescribed for the degree. Such approval will be valid for one year but may be renewed on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law.

FPM4.2 Where a candidate is granted credit for a course, or courses, the candidate will nevertheless have to complete a research task, or tasks, in an approved course, or approved courses, other than the courses for which the candidate is registered.

FPM4.3 Notwithstanding Rule FPM4.1, a candidate will not be admitted to the degree in terms of Rule FPM3 unless he or she has completed at least the majority of the prescribed courses and the research project at this University.

FPM4.4 Except with the permission of Senate, a student may not be granted credit towards the LLM degree for courses successfully completed towards the Postgraduate Diploma in Law after the Diploma has been conferred on that student.

Minimum requirements for readmission:
FPM5 Senate may refuse readmission to a candidate who
1. fails two courses, or the same course twice. For the purpose of this Rule, a 60-credit course shall be regarded as one course, or
2. does not submit a research task by the submission date, or any extended date granted in writing by the course convener of the course to which the research task is linked.

Duration of programme:
FPM6 Except with the permission of Senate:
1. a full-time candidate must complete the approved coursework and research project required for the degree in one academic year (two courses and related tasks per semester); and
2. a part-time candidate must complete the approved coursework and research project required for the degree within two academic years (one course and related task per semester).

Distinction:
FPM7 The degree may be awarded with distinction.
FPM8 For the degree to be awarded with distinction a candidate must:
8.1 complete the coursework in one year if full-time or in two years if part-time;
8.2 submit the research tasks as per rule FPM3.8;
8.3 not count work towards the degree in respect of work that he or she has completed towards another degree or diploma; and 8.4 obtain an average mark of at least 75%.

Exemption from or modification of rules:
FPM9 Any exemption from or modification of these Rules must be approved by Senate.
NOTES:
(a) Courses on offer may be added to from time to time or a particular course may not be offered in a particular year.
(b) Candidates for the degree must at the time of application indicate which courses they intend to pursue. Certain courses have distinct admission criteria so that admission to a named LLM programme does not necessarily signify acceptance for such courses. International students should note that some of the courses assume detailed knowledge of South African law as the basis for further study: it is therefore unlikely that they would be admitted to such a course unless they have been permitted to do so by the course convenor.
(c) The following general policy exists currently with regard to applicants: an applicant with an average of 70% will generally be granted automatic admission, while an applicant with an average of between 60% and 69% will be subject to discretionary admission. Subsequent study and/or related work experience is a recommendation.

Master of Laws (LLM) in approved courses and a minor dissertation

The field of law in which the dissertation and three of the four courses of the degree have been fulfilled will determine the area of specialisation.

Admission:
FMC3 A person may be considered for admission as a candidate for the degree of Master of Laws if -
1. he or she has a law degree of the University or an equivalent degree of another University or institution recognised by the Senate for the purpose; or
2. he or she has in any other manner attained a level of competence, which, in the opinion of Senate, on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law, is adequate for the purposes of admission as a candidate for the degree.
3. in the case of an applicant whose primary language is not English, he or she has submitted evidence of proficiency in English of a sufficiently high standard to undertake postgraduate studies in Law. Evidence of proficiency may include one of the following:
- a recent score (obtained within 3 - 5 years before application for admission) of at least 570 (paper-based test) or 230 (computer-based test) or 88 (Internet-based test) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- a recent overall band score of 7.0 (with no individual element of the test scoring below 6.0) on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
- a score of at least 75% on the Academic Literacy component of the National Benchmark Test (NBT).
An applicant may be required to pass a law-specific English proficiency test before being permitted to register in the Faculty.

Obtaining the degree:
FMC4 A candidate must undertake advanced study in four approved courses (or the equivalent) and complete a minor research dissertation under the guidance of a supervisor appointed by Senate. A candidate must obtain at least 50% for each course and at least 50% for the minor dissertation.

Examination:
FMC5.1 A candidate may be required to submit prepared assignments, participate in debates or moots, and undergo a written and/or oral examination in all or any of his/her approved courses and/or minor dissertation.
FMC5.2 The candidate must submit a minor dissertation of not more than 25 000 words on a subject approved by Senate which must be of legal interest and related to one of the approved courses.
FMC5.3 A candidate who has failed any approved course with 47% or more has the right to an oral examination in that course.
FMC5.4 Any such oral examination shall be convened upon a minimum of three days notice given by the Faculty to the candidate, and shall be held at the Faculty in the presence of two examiners, one of whom shall be external to the course concerned, but who may be a member of the Faculty staff.
FMC5.5 Supplementary examinations are not set for any of the approved courses.

Credit and exemption:
FMC6.1 For the purpose of granting credit for and exempting a candidate from a maximum of two of the courses prescribed under FMC4, Senate may accept examinations in an appropriate course of equivalent weight passed at this or another university or institution recognised for this purpose; provided that Senate may, in advance, approve a course or courses, which, if completed successfully, will allow credit for and exemption from a course or courses prescribed for the degree. Such approval will be valid for one year but may be renewed on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law.
FMC6.2 Notwithstanding Rule FMC6.1, a candidate will not be admitted to the degree in terms of Rule FMC4 unless he or she has completed at least the majority of the prescribed courses and the minor dissertation at this University.
FMC6.3 Except with the permission of Senate, no student may be granted credit towards the LLM degree for courses successfully completed towards the Postgraduate Diploma in Law after the Diploma has been conferred on that student.

Date for submission of minor dissertation:
FMC7.1 The proposal for the minor dissertation must be submitted to the supervisor no later than the time at which half the coursework requirements of the degree have been fulfilled.

FMC7.2 The minor dissertation must be submitted by no later than the Friday before the first term of the year following the Final Level of registration for approved courses (see Rule FMC11) for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June. Should a longer period be required to complete a dissertation, a formal application for extension must be submitted. This will have fee implications. Candidates have to re-register in February each year while completing the degree.

Exclusion from a course

Minimum requirements for readmission to the degree:

FMC8.1 A candidate must pass three of the four courses in order to qualify for readmission.

FMC8.2 Should a candidate fail a course he or she may only continue by taking another course, unless Senate gives permission to repeat the course failed or study for a longer period.

FMC8.3 A candidate who fails the minor dissertation may be permitted by Senate on one occasion only to submit another minor dissertation, which must be on a different topic.

Exclusion from the degree:

FMC9.1 A candidate who fails two courses or the same course twice will not be allowed to reregister for any other LLM course, except with the permission of Senate. For the purpose of this Rule, a double course shall be regarded as one course.

FMC9.2 A candidate who fails the minor dissertation twice or does not submit the dissertation timeously, having been given an extension of time (see FMC7) will not be allowed to re-register for either the Degree nor any further postgraduate study, except with the permission of Senate.

Duration of programme:

FMC10 Except with the permission of Senate:

1. a full-time candidate must complete the approved coursework required for the degree in one academic year (two courses per semester) and the dissertation in accordance with Rule FMC7; and
2. a part-time candidate must complete the approved coursework required for the degree within two academic years (one course per semester) and the dissertation in accordance with Rule FMC7.

Minor dissertation:

FMC11 The minor dissertation must be satisfactory in arrangement and expression and must be typed and printed. A candidate must submit three copies (temporary bindings) and an electronic version directly to the Faculty Office.

The following statement must appear on the title page:

Research dissertation presented for the approval of Senate in fulfilment of part of the requirements for the qualification for which a student is registered in approved courses and a minor dissertation. The other part of the requirement for this qualification was the completion of a programme of courses.

I hereby declare that I have read and understood the regulations governing the submission of qualification for which student is registered dissertations, including those relating to length and plagiarism, as contained in the rules of this University, and that this dissertation conforms to those regulations.

Note: One unbound copy is lodged with Special Collections, Chancellor Oppenheimer Library. The electronic version should be in Adobe (.pdf) or Word (.doc) format. Free software for the pdf format is on the Law fileserver and is also available from the School for Advanced Legal Studies.
Publication of minor dissertation:
FMC12 No publication may, without the prior permission of the University, contain a statement that the published material was or is to be submitted in part or in full for the degree.

Distinction:
FMC13.1 The degree may be awarded with distinction.
FMC13.2 For the degree to be awarded with distinction a candidate must:
1. complete the coursework in one year if full-time or in two years if part-time;
2. submit the minor dissertation no later than the Friday before the first term of the year following the completion of the coursework for students who have completed their coursework in December and 15 September of the same year for students who have completed their coursework in June;
3. not be permitted to count work for which he or she may have been granted credit towards the degree in respect of work completed towards another degree or diploma; and
4. obtain an average mark of at least 75%, the minor dissertation counting for 50% of the examination.

Exemption from or modification of rules:
FMC14 Any exemption from or modification of the Rules for the LLM must be approved by Senate.

NOTES:
(a) Courses on offer may be added to from time to time or a particular course may not be offered in a particular year.
(b) Candidates for the degree must at the time of application indicate which courses they intend to pursue. Certain courses have distinct admission criteria so that admission to the LLM programme does not necessarily signify acceptance for such courses. Foreign students should note that some of the courses assume detailed knowledge of South African law as the basis for further study: it is therefore unlikely that they would be admitted to such a course.
(c) The following general policy exists currently with regard to applicants: an applicant with an average of 70% will generally be granted automatic admission, while an applicant with an average of between 60% and 69% will be subject to discretionary admission. Subsequent study and/or related work experience is a recommendation. For those with a BProc degree, an average mark greater than 70% is required, unless there is evidence of additional/subsequent work experience appropriate to the courses chosen.

Master of Philosophy (MPhil) in approved courses and a minor dissertation
These rules must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies.

FMR1 The Faculty offers a Master of Philosophy degree which is examined by coursework and a minor dissertation, in the following circumstances:
(i) where a law graduate wishes to pursue Master’s level studies in law as well as in inter-Faculty cognate topics, such that the award of an LLM degree would be inappropriate; or
(ii) where a non-law graduate wishes to pursue Master's level studies either in law as well as in inter-Faculty cognate topics or entirely in law.

Specialist areas:
FMR2 The degree may be conferred without specialisation, in Law or in any of the specialist areas listed in Rule FMC2 above.
Admission:
FMR3 In addition to those who may be considered for admission as candidates for the LLM degree (see Rule FMC3.1 and FMC3.2 above), graduates with an Honours degree of the University or an equivalent degree of another university or institution recognised by Senate for this purpose may be considered for admission as candidates for a degree of Master of Philosophy.

In the case of an applicant whose primary language is not English, he or she must submit evidence of proficiency in English of a sufficiently high standard to undertake postgraduate studies in Law. Evidence of proficiency may include one of the following:
- a recent score (obtained within 3 - 5 years before application for admission) of at least 570 (paper-based test) or 230 (computer-based test) or 88 (Internet-based test) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- a recent overall band score of 7.0 (with no individual element of the test scoring below 6.0) on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
- a score of at least 75% on the Academic Literacy component of the National Benchmark Test (NBT).

An applicant may be required to pass a law-specific English proficiency test before being permitted to register in the Faculty.

Further rules:
Rules FMC4 to FMC14 for the LLM degree (above) apply unchanged to the MPhil degree by coursework, except that ‘MPhil / Master of Philosophy’ is substituted for ‘LLM / Master of Laws’ where it appears.

Master of Laws (LLM) by dissertation

These rules must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies.

The Faculty offers a Master of Laws (LLM) degree which is examined by a dissertation, subject to these rules in particular. The degree may be conferred in any of the following specialist areas:

Admission:
FMD1 A person may be considered for admission as a candidate for the degree of Master of Laws if –
1. S/he has a law degree of the University or an equivalent degree of another University recognised by the Senate for this purpose; or
2. S/he has in any other manner attained a level of competence which in the opinion of Senate, on the recommendation of the Faculty of Law, is adequate for the purposes of admission as a candidate for the degree.

NOTE: Returning candidates must renew their registration not later than the last Friday in February every year. A late penalty fee is charged for registration after that date.

Obtaining the degree:
FMD2 Under the guidance of a supervisor appointed by Senate a candidate must undertake research at an advanced level for the purpose of writing a dissertation.
Examination:
FMD3 The examination consists of –
1. a dissertation on a subject of legal interest approved by Senate; or
2. a series of (four) short dissertations on cognate areas of the law, approved by Senate.

Dates for submission:
FMD4.1 When candidates intend to submit their dissertations for examination with a view to the degree being awarded at either the June or December graduation ceremonies, they must inform the Registrar in writing by no later than 1 February or 20 June, as the case may be.

FMD4.2 The final dates for submitting dissertations to the Registrar are 1 March or 15 August, respectively.

Written or oral examinations:
FMD5 A candidate may be required to undergo a written or oral examination on the subject matter of any dissertation.

Part-time students:
FMD6 A part-time student must be registered for a minimum of two academic years.

The dissertation:
FMD7 Dissertations may not exceed 40 000 words in length; they must be satisfactorily structured and formatted and they must be typewritten or printed. A candidate must submit five copies (in temporary bindings), together with five copies of a brief summary of the contents of the argument.

Publication:
FMD8 Without the prior permission of the University, no publication flowing from the dissertation may contain a statement that it was or is to be submitted in part or in full for the degree.

Distinction:
FMD9 The degree may be awarded with distinction.

NOTE: Initial application for registration for this degree should be accompanied by a research proposal set out according to the guidelines determined by the Faculty Higher Degrees Committee. These guidelines are obtainable from the Faculty Office. Before registration candidates may be required to undertake further work of a preparatory nature.

Master of Philosophy (MPhil) by dissertation

These rules must be read in conjunction with the general rules for degrees and diplomas in Book 3: General Rules and Policies.

The Faculty offers a Master of Philosophy (MPhil) degree which is examined by a dissertation, subject to these rules in particular. The degree may be conferred in any of the following specialist areas:

Admission:
FMP1 A person may be considered as a candidate for the degree of Master of Philosophy if
(i) s/he has at least a law degree or an Honours degree from the University, or an equivalent degree from another University recognised by Senate for this purpose; or
(ii) s/he has in any other manner attained a level of competence which, in the opinion of Senate, on recommendation by the Faculty of Law, is adequate for purposes of admission as a candidate for the degree.

NOTE: Returning candidates must renew their registration not later than the last Friday in February every year. A late penalty fee is charged for registration after that date.

Obtaining the degree:
FMP2 Under the guidance of the supervisor appointed by Senate a candidate must undertake research at an advanced level for the purpose of writing a dissertation.

Examination:
FMP3 The examination consists of a dissertation or a series of short dissertations on cognate topics, on a subject of inter-faculty interest.

The topic:
FMP4 Although the dissertation must have a law component, it also must be on a subject of inter-faculty interest.

Rules FMD4 to FMD9 apply also to candidates for the MPhil degree.

Doctoral degrees

Doctor of Laws (LLD)

NOTE: Until 2004 different rules applied to the award of this doctorate.

FD1 The Degree of Doctor of Laws may be obtained for a substantial body of work that has already been published. Such work must constitute an original contribution to, or an important advance on, knowledge in the subject. This degree is the senior doctorate in the Faculty of Law. It is awarded rarely, as a mark of respect, normally only for work undertaken over a period of many years which has established the applicant as the leading authority in his or her field.

FD2 The rules for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, other than the admission rules, and the rule regulating the standing required prior to admission, apply mutatis mutandis.

Application for admission:
FD3 Application for the LLD degree is governed by procedures set out by the Doctoral Degrees Board of the University in a document entitled Procedures for the Administration of the LLD by Published Work.

NOTE: A copy of these procedures is obtainable from the Faculty Office. They include the following rules:
(i) the candidate must provide copies of the body of work, as specified by the Higher Degrees Committee,
(ii) a preliminary screening procedure must be undertaken by a Committee of Assessors, appointed by the Doctoral Degrees Board, to consider whether the work is of the standard and maturity required for this senior Doctorate, and

(iii) registration and examination will take place only when the Doctoral Degrees Board has accepted the application, and only after receiving the opinion of the Committee of Assessors.

Requirements for award of the degree:
FD4.1 A candidate must submit published work in an area of law which must constitute a substantial, original and important contribution to the current body of scholarship. The candidate may submit other published and unpublished work as collateral testimony of fitness for the degree.

FD4.2 No work will be accepted which has been accepted by this or any other University for the purpose of obtaining a degree.

FD4.3 The examination will consist primarily of an assessment of the published work, but, if required by Senate, candidates must present themselves for an additional written or oral examination on the subject of the work presented.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)
The Faculty offers a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree which is examined by a thesis. The degree may be conferred in any of the following specialist areas:

POSTGRADUATE STUDY PROGRAMMES
(excluding Professional Master’s)

Teaching contact periods vary from course to course: details must be obtained from the course convener in each instance. Because of the wide range of courses on offer, a draft timetable is drawn up for each semester. This might mean that certain combinations of courses are not possible, although the School for Advanced Legal Studies (SALS) will try to accommodate as much freedom of choice as possible. Please consult the timetable when choosing courses.

Various groupings of subjects are set out below as ‘programmes’, as the issues which are dealt with form a coherent whole. If a student elects such a ‘programme’, he or she will be awarded with the degree/diploma in the specialist area concerned. Please refer to the Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and the Rules for Postgraduate Diplomas in Law for further information.

The following ‘programmes’ are described:

Commercial Law
Comparative Law in Africa
Constitutional and Administrative Law
Criminology, Law and Society
Dispute Resolution
Environmental Law
Human Rights Law
Intellectual Property Law
International Law
International Trade Law
Labour Law
Marine and Environmental Law
Private Law and Human Rights
Public Law
Shipping Law
Tax Law

This does not mean that the courses listed under specific ‘programme’ headings may not freely be chosen as part of a ‘general’ diploma/degree, or as components of a field of study (e.g. commercial law) which is wider than a ‘programme’ but narrower than ‘general’.

Commercial Law

Programme convener: Ms J Yeats

Master's degree (LLM/MPhil) specialising in Commercial Law [LM003CML01/LM002CML01]

The curriculum comprises four elective courses, three of which must be from this section, or courses listed under the Labour Law or Shipping Law programmes, and a compulsory minor dissertation of not more than 25 000 words on a related topic approved by the programme convener. If so desired, a student may select the fourth elective from offerings in other departments. The curriculum consists of 240 credits.

CML.5619F THE LAW OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.
Course convener(s): Ms K Lehmann
Entrance requirements:
An LLB from UCT or the equivalent legal qualification from a recognised university.
Course outline:
The Law of International Trade examines the public law aspects of international trade, the international regulatory framework within which private traders operate, concentrating on the law and practice of the World Trade Organisation (WTO). We will consider the purpose of trade, why it is that the WTO is considered the most successful of international organisations, and why it is that the WTO continues to attract controversy and criticism. In answering these questions, we will consider select WTO agreements to provide insights into both what the law says and how the law impacts on states and private actors within those states. The purpose of the course is to provide students with some ‘technical’ understanding of the WTO as an institution, and to provide students with the tools to critically evaluate whether the WTO is meeting its worthy objectives as set in the Agreement establishing the WTO, including raising living standards, ensuring full employment, optimising the use of the world’s resources in accordance with the principle of sustainable development, and ensuring that developing countries, especially LDCs, secure a share in the growth of international trade commensurate with their economic needs. This is not an economics course, and we cannot assess the economic case for free trade. Instead, as lawyers, we will examine the law and jurisprudence of the WTO, to assess to what extent the laws themselves allow for free and fair trade.

CML5661W TAX LAW
NQF credits: 60 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate double course, taught throughout the year.
Course convener(s): Associate Professor T S Emslie
Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
The objective of the course is to nurture tax lawyers and to provide non-lawyers with an insight into tax law and the rights of taxpayers in regard to liability for taxation. The accent is on the practical application of tax legislation as interpreted by the courts. The aim is to produce commercial lawyers who will be able to achieve tax efficiency when drafting agreements, negotiating contracts and advising their clients, and to foster a similar awareness of tax issues in other professionals.

This is a one-year course that focuses on income tax law as pronounced upon by the courts. Its compass is necessarily restricted by the amount of lecturing time available, but also - deliberately - by the content of areas of dispute within which South African jurisprudence has been developed by the courts.

Tax law as an area of both practice and academic study is characterised by regular, frequent and, in recent years, substantial change. The chosen teaching method accordingly recognises that much information in the form of legislation, and the interpretation thereof by the courts, is likely to change significantly in the short term and possibly substantially in the medium to long term.

The objective of the course is to impart a way of thinking about tax issues and problems; and in order to achieve this extensive use is made of court pronouncements in areas which are likely to remain fundamental to our system of taxation - despite continuous reinterpretation by the courts and a shifting legislative context. Students who engage actively in this process obtain thereby a principled foundation and grasp that equips them to master the inevitable changes that characterise this branch of the law. This is an ability that is required of all tax professionals, whether academic or in practice, and the aim of this course is to foster and nurture the necessary skills.

The emphasis of the course is accordingly on knowledge rather than information, knowledge that will stand the test of time and enable graduates to integrate future tax changes into their methodology of resolving difficult tax problems in accordance with South African tax jurisprudence.

Lectures: Two lectures per week throughout the year, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

DP requirements: Candidates are required to pass (a minimum result of 50%) both the following: a two-hour written test in June which counts for 30%, and one three-hour final written examination in November which counts for 70%. Further tests maybe scheduled at the discretion of the convener.

NOTE: The Convener of the course may, at his/her discretion, limit the size of the class for didactic reasons. CML5661W Tax Law is the approved course for the award of the Postgraduate Diploma in Tax Law: it is also a double-course for the award of the LLM degree in Commercial Law or Tax Law.

CML5663W ADVANCED TAX LAW

NQF credits: 60 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate double course, taught throughout the year.

Course convener(s): Judge D M Davis

Entrance requirements: A candidate is not permitted to register for this course unless he or she has either completed Tax Law (CML5661W) or, in the opinion of the Course convener(s), otherwise has a sufficiently sound academic background.

Objective: The objective of this course is to develop academic and professional proficiency in:

• South African capital transfer taxes, particularly value added tax law, donations tax and estate duty. This will be done by considering the tax legislation, its interpretation by the courts and its practical application in commerce.

• International tax law. This will be done by considering the unilateral and bilateral measures to prevent double taxation and international tax avoidance.

Course outline:
Part 1 of the course deals with Value added Tax, Donations tax and Estate Duty tax as levied in South Africa. The relevant legislation as interpreted by the courts, its practical application, both domestically and internationally will be examined.
Part 2 deals with international taxation. The course will cover, inter alia, trading into and out of South Africa, methods of relieving international double taxation, the interpretation and application of double taxation conventions, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's (OECD) Model Convention on Income and on Capital, the United Nations Model Convention on Income and on Capital, the allocation of taxing liability of various forms of income, international tax avoidance including transfer pricing and thin capitalisation and exchange control.

Candidates are required to present papers, disseminated in advance to the class as a whole, on approved topics. Active participation is required in all seminars at which papers are presented. The number of papers to be presented will depend on the size of the class but will not be less than two. Prior to the presentation of seminars, a set of lectures will be presented.

Lectures: One two hour seminar per week save in the case of lectures (two double lectures per week).

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance and presentation of seminar papers.

Assessment:

The papers presented by the candidates, which are to be written up following criticism and comment during the presentation, will count for 50% and a further four hour examination counts for the remaining 50%. Both the papers and the examination must be passed.

NOTE: The Convener of the course may, at his/her discretion, limit the size of the class for didactic reasons. CML5663W Advanced Tax Law is also a double-course for the award of the LLM degree in Commercial Law or Tax Law.

CML5664F LAW AND REGIONAL INTEGRATION IN AFRICA: COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Mr M Nkomo

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:

The aim of the course is to provide a forum for students at an advanced level to critically study and analyse developments related to law and regional integration in Africa and other regions of the world. Production of research is also expected of the students. The course will focus on both commercial and public law aspects in relation to regional integration in Africa and elsewhere. It will therefore examine in a comparative context legal aspects of economic and political integration in various regions with Africa as the starting point. The classes will consist of a combination of lectures by conveners and guest lecturers and seminar presentations on selected topics by students. All lectures and seminars will be on the basis of extensive background reading of relevant materials.

Lecturers and seminars will mainly focus on historical developments of regionalism in Africa and elsewhere, theories of regional integration, legal aspects of institutional and normative framework of African and other regional integration experiences. In terms of Africa, the focus will be on the normative and institutional framework of the African Union (AU) and debate on the Unites States of Africa; the role of ‘soft’ mechanisms of the African Union such as NEPAD and the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) in the facilitation of regional economic and political integration; the relationship between the AU and sub-regional organizations such as ECOWAS, SADC, EAC to the African Union; challenges of harmonisation of laws and the domestication of African economic agreements, prospects and challenges of regional integration.

There will be a similar focus on other regional integration experiences such as those of Europe and North America. The Course presentation will be a mix of lectures and student seminars and discussions.

CML5692F COMPANY LAW, CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND LABOUR LAW
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester. One double lecture (3 hours) per week.
Course convener(s): Ms J Yeats

Entrance requirements: The course pre-supposes a thorough knowledge and understanding of South African Company Law and Labour Law at LLB level or the equivalent. Students who do not have this qualification should not attempt this course. However, in extremely limited circumstances, and at the sole discretion of the course convener(s), students may be admitted on the basis of alternative qualifications or work experience. Such applications will only be considered if supported by a detailed written motivation accompanied by relevant documentation.
Course outline:
This course straddles and links Company Law and Labour Law by fostering an understanding of Corporate Governance and its underlying philosophies. It introduces a fresh perspective on the relationship between commerce and labour which have historically been cast as adversaries. The role of Corporate Governance in reversing that approach, and the value of doing so for companies themselves, is emphasised. The course may include a study of the Corporate Governance requirements and other relevant legal obligations with reference to inter alia the Companies Act, the King Report, international best practice, the JSE Listings requirements, the Insolvency Act, case law and common law. These Company Law and Corporate Governance rules, principles and policies are then applied and examined through the specific lens of Labour law. In considering selected corporate actions and events, the interactions between Company Law, Corporate Governance, Labour Law and selected aspects of other laws (including for example, Insolvency Law, Contract Law, International Trade Law, Trust Law and Competition Law) are discussed. Here, the need for meaningful Corporate Governance (rather than mere formalistic compliance with its tenets) will be debated, with particular reference to labour relations and the value of doing so for a company’s profit objectives.

Course outline: South Africa’s new Constitution sets out the rights of citizens and establishes a framework for democratic governance and local government. In developing these institutions, along with a multi-level system comprising national, provincial and local government, South Africa’s constitutional designers were responding to the needs and aspirations of contemporary South Africa. But they, in light of this comparative experience, also had before them a rich array of alternatives from other countries. The central purpose of this course is to seek to understand the new framework for governance in South Africa.

Constitutions are complex mixtures of broad principles, and specific rules and institutions. Accordingly, we will be interested in two levels of analysis: first, what broad principles and values underpin the institutional framework, and how are these expressed in the institutions themselves? And, second, more practically, how do these institutions, and the interactions among them, actually work in shaping the process of policy-making and implementation? Thus we are interested in the values associated with democracy – participation, accountability, consensus, etc; and in those associated with what might be called ‘effective governance’, in light of the policy challenges which face the country.

The course will thus also provide you with an understanding of how government works with a focus on

(i) the relationship between the executive and the legislature and what that means for lawyers and
(ii) the relationship between national, provincial and local government.

Our study of multi-level government and the powers of each sphere of framework necessary for policy making and litigation in this area.

Lectures: By arrangement.

PBL5624W MASTERS IN MARINE AND ENVIROMENTAL LAW DISSERTATION PART

NQF credits: 120 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, whole year.

Course convener(s): Professor A R Paterson

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees.

Course outline:

A Master of Laws (LLM) or Master of Philosophy (MPhil) student must write a minor dissertation on a subject of legal interest related to one of their courses. The subject of the dissertation must also satisfy the rules applicable to the particular programme. The minor dissertation may not exceed 25 000 words in length. Although an original contribution to knowledge is always desirable in a minor dissertation, it is not an essential requirement. However, candidates must show that they have:

- a thorough knowledge of the subject chosen;
- mastered techniques required for competent research in law;
- the capacity for independent thought and sound reasoning; and
- satisfactorily presented the results of the research.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment: 100% written work.

PBL5640F  PRINCIPLES OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.
Course convener(s): Professor A R Paterson
Lectures: Block teaching over 2 weeks and 11 weeks of correspondence study.
Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.
Course outline: The health of planet earth, and accordingly the sustainability of human life on it, is facing significant challenges. One of the disciplines which have sought to fashion a framework for overcoming and governing these challenges, is law. The result has seen the rapid emergence of international and regional instruments and domestic laws seeking to regulate the manner in which humans interact with their environment.

This course provides a comprehensive introduction to environmental law. It covers the following main content: historical overview of the development of environmental law; ethical basis for environmental law; the nature, scope and sources of environmental law; the relationship between constitutional rights (environmental rights, administrative justice, access to information, locus standi) and environmental law; environmental governance; the role of common law; and the main legal tools prevalent in environmental laws such as planning measures, institutional arrangements, permitting measures, EIA, civil measures, administrative measures, criminal measures, voluntary measures and incentive-based measures.

As South Africa has one of the world’s most contemporary environmental legal regimes, it will be used as a case study throughout the above components. Given the all-pervasive nature of environmental law, the issues covered in this course are of relevance to all domestic legal practitioners, government officials and those working in the NGO sector. Furthermore, given the contemporary nature of South Africa’s environmental regime, the course is of key relevance to foreign students wishing to understand, critique and become involved in the reformation of their own domestic environmental regimes.

DP requirements:
Satisfactory attendance at all lectures, participation on class seminars and submission of course assignment.

Assessment:
One research assignment counts for 40%; one or more written or oral assignments count for 10%; written examination counts for 50% of the final grade.

PBL5641F  LAND USE PLANNING LAW

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Professor A R Paterson

Lectures: Block teaching over 2 weeks and 11 weeks of correspondence study.

Entrance requirements: The student must have completed, or be simultaneously completing, Principles of Environmental Law or have the prior written consent of the course convener.

Course outline: One of the key ways to govern the impact of society on the environment is through regulating land-use and planning. Land use planning law came into being at the beginning of the twentieth century but environmental law was superimposed on it towards the end of the twentieth century. The past few decades have accordingly seen a significant shift in the array and nature of regulatory tools planning authorities have sought to use to achieve a balance between the dictates of development and environmental protection. Key planning tools which are inherent in domestic legal frameworks include: integrated development planning; future spatial planning; zoning schemes; subdivision; title deed restrictions; environmental impact assessment; the designation of protected areas; and in the context of coastal management, integrated coastal planning.

This course aims to critically examine the nature of these various planning tools. South Africa’s domestic regime is used as a case study through which to explore their practical application. These land-use and planning tools are of relevance to every landowner and the course is accordingly of relevance to domestic legal practitioners, government officials and those working in the NGO sector. Furthermore, given the contemporary nature of South Africa’s environmental impact assessment, coastal planning and protected areas regimes in particular, the course is of key relevance to foreign students wishing to understand, critique and become involved in the reformation of their own domestic land-use and planning regimes.
DP requirements:
Satisfactory attendance at all lectures, participation on class seminars and submission of course assignment.

Assessment:
One research assignment counts for 40%; one or more written or oral assignments count for 10%; written examination counts for 50% of the final grade.

PBL5642S NATURAL RESOURCES LAW
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester.
Course convener(s): Professor L A Feris
Lectures: Block teaching over 2 weeks and 11 weeks of correspondence study.
Entrance requirements: The student must have completed Principles of Environmental Law or have the prior written consent of the course convener.
Course outline: This course examines the domestic legal frameworks which have emerged to regulate the use and conservation of natural resources. These legal frameworks prescribe an array of tools including: institutional arrangements; planning schemes, permitting regimes; duties of care; incentive-based measures; civil liability measures; and criminal measures. The course is of relevance to domestic legal practitioners, government officials and those working in the NGO sector and of key comparative relevance to foreign students wishing to understand, critique and become involved in the reformation of their own domestic natural resource regime.
DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at all lectures, participation on class seminars and submission of course assignments.
Assessment: One research assignment counts for 25%; one group film assignment counts for 15%; one or more written or oral assignments count for 10%; written examination counts for 50% of the final grade.

PBL5643S POLLUTION LAW
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester.
Course convener(s): Professor L A Feris
Lectures: Block teaching over 2 weeks and 11 weeks of correspondence study.
Entrance requirements: The student must have completed Principles of Environmental Law or have the prior written consent of the course convener.
Course outline: This course examines the domestic legal frameworks which have emerged to regulate land, air and water pollution. These legal frameworks prescribe an array of tools including: institutional arrangements; planning schemes; pollution standards; permitting regimes; trading schemes; duties of care; emergency incident provisions; strict liability; statutory nuisances; rehabilitation orders; incentive-based measures; civil liability measures; and criminal measures. The course is of relevance to domestic legal practitioners, government officials and those working in the NGO sector and of key relevance to foreign students wishing to understand, critique and become involved in the reformation of their own domestic pollution regimes.
DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at all lectures, participation on class seminars and submission of course assignments.
Assessment: One research assignment counts for 25%; one group film assignment counts for 15%; one or more written or oral assignments count for 10%; written examination counts for 50% of the final grade.
PBL5644F  SEXUAL OFFENCES AND THE LAW (not offered in 2015)
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Professor D Smythe

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.
Course outline: In 2007 a decade-long process of reforming South Africa’s sexual offences laws culminated in the passage of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act 32 of 2007. At each stage of this process those involved in the law reform effort were forced to make strategic decisions about aspects of the proposed reforms. They asked hard questions about how useful specific reforms would be in achieving envisaged ends. Many of these questions remain: Why, for example, do we need a gender-neutral definition of rape? What difference does it make if consent is a defence or lack of consent an element of the crime? For answers to these difficult questions those involved in the process drew on experiences in the field, on the empirical data that they and others had generated in relation to victims, service providers, and criminal justice agencies, and on the comparative experiences of other jurisdictions with similar reforms enacted over the past 30 years.

Taking a multi-disciplinary approach, this course will track the process of rape law reform in South Africa, looking critically at what was included in the Act and what was omitted. It will move from broad questions about the utility of law in addressing sexual violence to a focused consideration of the interpretation and potential impact of key provisions. Issues to be covered in seminars include:

- Investigating and prosecuting rape
- Defining rape and issues of consent
- Harmful HIV-related sexual conduct
- Medico-legal and psycho-social issues
- Provision of PEP, treatment and counselling
- Special issues relating to the youthfulness of victims and offenders
- Vulnerable witnesses and protective measures
- Evidence and Procedure: caution, corroboration and delays, previous sexual history, character and disclosure of personal records
- Expert evidence
- Sentencing, treatment and supervision of offenders.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at, and participation in, seminars and completion of written work.
Assessment: Coursework (30%) and a substantial research paper (70%).

PBL5647S  SOCIAL JUSTICE, LAW AND DEVELOPMENT
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester, one seminar per week.

Course convener(s): Ms M von Broembsen

Entrance requirements: An LLB or Honours degree in selected Social Science disciplines. The Faculty reserves the right to limit classes to 15 students.

Course outline: This interdisciplinary course explores the different theoretical approaches to social justice and how these are embodied in policy. The course compares the imperatives of social justice with competing conceptualisations of development and pays particular attention to how different conceptualisations of development, social justice and poverty lead to an emphasis on different institutional structures, policies and distributive outcomes. Throughout the course we critically consider the role that law plays in realising different development paradigms. Increasingly, the dominant development paradigm asserts that ‘development happens through jobs’. In other words, implicit in the orthodox view of development is a reliance on the market to realise social outcomes. Not only is participation in the economy the primary strategy to alleviate poverty, but simultaneously it is viewed as the primary means of realising a range of social and economic objectives, including rural development, social inclusion and gender equality. The second part of the course therefore focuses on work. We explore the implications of ‘globalisation’ for work relations, the informal economy and multinational corporations’ power in the context of value chains and consider the implications and challenges from a social justice perspective. While globalisation has resulted in a crisis for labour law, at the same time, it will be argued, it produces opportunities for law to challenge the primacy of economics as the discipline that frames our understanding of development.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements:
Must have 50% for first essay. Failure to have 50% means candidate will have to write a test on the first half of the course.

Assessment:
Essay 1: 20%; Class presentations (2) 20%; Reflection on prescribed book 10%; Essay 2: 40%; Class participation 10%

PBL5648S SOCIAL JUSTICE IN PRACTICE (not offered in 2015)

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester. There will be weekly seminars or workshops and approximately 10 days of fieldwork, which are spread over the period of the course.

Course convener(s): Ms M von Broembsen

Entrance requirements: An LLB or Honours degree in selected Social Science disciplines. The Faculty reserves the right to limit classes to 15 students.

Course outline:
This course is concerned with social justice in practice. Our touchstone is the transformative vision embodied in the Constitution of South Africa, as we reflect on the interplay between rights, social mobilisation, advocacy and developmental strategies within a participatory democracy. Using ‘Legal Empowerment of the Poor’ as a lens, the course reflects on notions of empowerment; how power (including our own) impacts on and shapes the practical outworking of social justice and at times results in unintended consequences.

The main focus of the seminars is on practical strategies intended to facilitate social justice. Students will study the theory in each area and undertake selected site visits to projects that reflect best practice. Students are assigned to work with a civil society organization for the duration of the course. Each student will be required to spend 32 hours with the organisation, spread over the period of the course. The course concludes with the design and implementation of a small-scale development intervention by the student, in conjunction with the civil society partner.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment:
Participation and class assignments 50%
Practical project instead of written examination 50%

Students are required to pass the practical project in order to pass the course.

PBL5651S INTERNATIONAL PROTECTION OF WOMEN’S HUMAN RIGHTS

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester. There will be one 3-hour seminar per week by arrangement.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor R Manjoo

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline: The course examines the development, content and implementation of international and regional laws that seek to promote and protect women’s human rights.

Specific topics will include, amongst others:
1. Theoretical underpinnings of women’s human rights
2. International and regional protection of women’s human rights
3. Domestication of women’s human rights
4. Current concerns and topical issues in women’s rights including: violence against women; trafficking; sexual and reproductive rights; impact of culture, religion and tradition on women; the girl child etc.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at, and participation in, seminars and completion of written work.

Assessment:
- Written assignment and seminar presentation: 40%
- Research paper: 60%

PBL5653F  REFUGEE LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Ms F Khan

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:

Part 1 of the course will set out the origins, developments and established principles of refugee rights in international human rights law. Through this discussion students will acquire a thorough understanding of the 1951 UN Convention relating to the status of refugees and certain regional instruments, in particular the OAU Convention, and the South African Refugees Act.

Part 2 will focus on the regime of rights protected by the various instruments. Through a series of seminars students will undertake an analysis of the substance of specific rights (please note that the rights under discussion will change from year to year).

Part 3 will conclude the course by focusing on contemporary issues in refugee law. Under discussion in 2015 will be the question of a “lasting peace” in Rwanda and the pre-mature recommendations of cessation for Rwandans.

Lectures: Three hour weekly seminars, by arrangement.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at, and participation in, lectures and seminar sessions and completion of written work.

Assessment:
- Written assignment: 50%
- Examination: 50%

PBL5658S  ADMINISTRATIVE JUSTICE AND OPEN GOVERNMENT
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester, one seminar per week.

Course convener(s): Professor H M Corder

Entrance requirements: Competent academic and/or practical knowledge of South African and/or common-law based administrative law. Those without a formal qualification in law will be admitted at the discretion of the course convener.

Course outline:
There is no doubt that the organisational complexity of a modern democratic state demands of its executive branch that it be sophisticated, efficient, open and accountable. Most of such administrative process must be based on discretionary power in the hands of public officials. The challenge is to fashion legal rights, duties and procedures so that the subject has remedies to confront the abuse of public power, while leaving the executive sufficient space to govern legitimately. South African administrative law is relatively undeveloped when compared with similar legal systems, yet it faces greater demands than exist in most countries. This is particularly the case as the Constitution develops to accommodate changing political reality. This course intends to enable students to become familiar with a responsive package of legal institutions and rules to regulate the administration. Current administrative law will be examined critically, with substantial reference to the way in which the law has developed in other jurisdictions, particularly in the British Commonwealth. The feasibility and form of constitutional protection of the right of access to information and of open government will receive considerable attention, in the context of the exponential increase in legal protection at both international and national level for ATI in the past 15 years, and the emerging new academic literature on ATI. While the course will be critical and forward-looking, it will naturally involve a detailed knowledge of current law and practice, equipping students to be practitioners in the forefront of developments in this field. Several guest lecturers will participate in the course while Associate Professor R Calland will lecture on open government.

Lectures: 3 hours per week (seminar)

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at and participation in seminars and completion of assignments.

Assessment: An essay and an assignment count for 40%; long paper or written examination counts for 60% of the final grade.

PBL5659S  HUMAN RIGHTS, LEGAL PLURALISM, RELIGION AND CULTURE
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor W Amien

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees.

Course outline:
This course will enable a study of the implications for human rights arising from the simultaneous operation of secular, religious and customary legal systems within a singular country. To explore the significance that plural legal systems have on human rights, reference will be made to different types of religious and customary laws including (but not limited to) family laws, personal laws, inheritance, criminal laws, finance, etc. The course will draw on legislation, case law and socio-legal studies where applicable, to examine how religious and customary laws drawn from among others (but not limited to) Islam, Hinduism, Judaism, Christianity and African customary laws impact on various human rights including (but not limited to) the rights to freedom of religion, culture and equality. Apart from a study of the South African context, comparative perspectives will also be offered to enhance the students’ understanding of the debates and applications of multiple legal systems and their implications for human rights in the international arena.

Course outline (the course will address the following broad themes):
1. Introduction to legal pluralism in South Africa: historical and current context
2. Theoretical foundations of legal pluralism
3. Models of affording legal recognition to religious and cultural laws and their implications for human rights
4. Selected religious and customary laws and their implications for human rights
5. Legislative and judicial interventions contributing to legal pluralism
6. Comparative perspectives from across the globe

Lectures: Three hours per week (seminar).

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at and participation in seminars, and completion of written assignment and seminar presentation.

Assessment: Class participation counts 10%; written assignment counts 70%; one seminar presentation based on the written assignment counts for 20% of the final grade.

PBL5660S ISSUES IN CRIME AND JUSTICE: ORGANISED NON-STATE VIOLENCE IN AFRICA

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester, one seminar per week.

Course convener(s): Mr G Lamb and Ms J Berg

Entrance requirements: LLB, Honours or equivalent degree.

The vast majority of African countries frequently experience organised violence, such as belligerent street protests, riots, vigilante action or militant labour strikes. In some African countries street and/or prison gangs, violent organised criminal groups, death squads, militias and rebels are active. This inter-disciplinary course will provide students with an opportunity to familiarise themselves with the concepts, manifestations, agents and theories of organised violence in Africa. The focus of the course will be to critically reflect on the dominant paradigm that perceives agents of organised violence as ‘parasitic’, ‘barbaric’ and ‘predatory’, which do not make constructive contributions to building state capacity and human development. Further to this, the conventional approach prioritises the combatting and repression of these agents. In addition, this course will consider the strategies and mechanisms by which this form of violence can be more constructively managed and resolved.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at lectures and submission of all assignments.

Assessment:
Coursework only: Class presentation (15%), two essays of 3000 words (30%) and a policy paper of 6000 words (55%).

PBL5661F LITIGATING THE SOUTH AFRICAN BILL OF RIGHTS

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Associate Professor R Calland

Course outline: South Africa’s experiment in Constitutional Democracy represents a rich case for the study of modern human rights. The socio-economic and political backdrop against which the Bill of Rights operates provides a complex and challenging context for the laboratory in rights and governance that the 1996 Constitution – and the political settlement that lies behind it – creates. Since the Constitution enjoins the courts to take into account international law when applying and interpreting the rights contained in the Bill of Rights, the course will, therefore, root the South African human rights law trajectory in an international framework and, where appropriate, provide a comparative perspective. Thus, the course tracks the jurisprudence of the South African courts and, in particular, the Constitutional Court since its inception, through the study of specific human rights topics, broadly categorised as:

- Civil and political rights – such as the right to freedom of expression and free media speech, the right to equality and religious/cultural freedom, etc;
- Socio-economic rights – such as the right to access to adequate housing, the right to a clean environment, the right to quality basic education, the right to health care, etc;
- Programmatic rights – such as the right to access to justice and the ‘right’ to participate in public policy-making

The course will also consist of several sessions dealing with the conceptual and practical aspects of litigating constitutional cases.

Lectures: Three hours (seminar) per week.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at and participation in lectures and completion of written and other assignments.

Assessment: Assessment will be by: (a) essay (40%); and (b) oral and/or written examination, in which each participant will be expected to draft heads of argument and argue the case; or alternatively by way of a written seminar paper and an oral examination (60%).

PBL5807S INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Dr H Woolaver

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas. Successful completion of courses in public international law, and substantive criminal law from any legal tradition. The course convener may make exceptions to this rule for students who demonstrate sufficient understanding of the principles of international law and criminal law.

Course outline: This course provides an introduction to specialist studies in international criminal law, that is, the body of law regulating individual criminal responsibility under international law. The course covers the history and development of international criminal law and the establishment, jurisdiction and activities of the International Criminal Court, international and internationalised criminal tribunals. Attention is given to the material, mental and contextual elements of the three ‘core crimes’ - genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes - as well as the legal requirements of relevant modes of liability, general principles of international criminal law, procedure, complementarity and cooperation in international criminal matters and selected conceptual and institutional critiques of the international criminal justice ‘project’. To benefit from this course, students will require a background in either international or criminal law, and are expected to participate fully in seminars and to read, understand and critically assess intrinsically complex and lengthy source materials.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment: Seminar essays 40%; written examination 50% and in-class presentation 10%.

PBL5815S PUNISHMENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS (not offered in 2015)

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Ms K Phelps

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:

This course aims to provide students with a sound theoretical understanding both of the justifications of punishment and human rights constraints in the context of sentencing. Students then apply this understanding to practical examples in order to assess how/ if the theory translates into practice. In so doing it is hoped to transcend a common-sense approach to sentencing and punishment and to build firm opinions/approaches based on acquired knowledge.

The course is divided into four broad sections. The first section introduces the class to the various philosophical justifications that have historically been provided for sentencing. A brief introduction is also provided to the relationship between human rights law and penal sanctions. The second section explores in detail the current justifications for punishment/ purposes of the correctional system. In so doing, issues such as deterrence, incapacitation, rehabilitation, restoration, retribution and just deserts will be explored. Section three deals with constraints placed on sentencing in South Africa by human rights norms contained in the Bill of Rights and international law. The final section of the course places the preceding theoretical/philosophical discussions into a practical context by dealing with current and future sentencing practice in South Africa, modes of implementing punishment (e.g. prison) and special stakeholders in punishment.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: 80% attendance at, and satisfactory participation in, seminars and the completion of the research papers and oral presentation.

Assessment: The presentation of at least one seminar and one research paper. Marks given for the seminars and research paper comprise the entire mark for the course.

PBL5820F THEORIES OF CRIME AND SOCIAL ORDER

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Ms J Berg

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
The course is intended to provide an understanding of the theoretical ideas that have shaped and are shaping criminal justice policy and the way in which both implicit and explicit policy agendas are realized in practice. The course will explore the history of criminological theory on understandings of crime and social order. The course considers the thinking of seminal criminological theorists; schools of thought and emblematic exemplars of each will be explored. The course will be presented through a series of seminars/lectures.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at seminars and completion of written assignments.

Assessment:
- Three reaction papers of 2000 words each: 45%
- A final paper of 5000 words: 55%

PBL5822S  VICTIMS AND VICTIMOLOGY: THEORY, POLICY AND PRACTICE

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Professor E van der Spuy

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Honours degree in Humanities or LLB.

Course outline:
Victims of crime and other harms have become constituencies of considerable importance in criminological debate, in the development of crime policies and criminal justice practices. The aims of this course are to engage and problematise the notion of ‘victims’ and to provide a substantive overview of the emerging field of victim studies with particular emphasis on:  the historical evolution of the field of enquiry; the development of theoretical perspectives; policy frameworks (global and national); and criminal justice practices in pursuit of safeguarding ‘victim rights’. Lastly, formal and informal responses to the victims’ movement will be explored.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at seminars and completion of written assignments.

Assessment:
- Written assignments: 60%
- Take-home examination: 40%
PBL5847S  FORENSICS AND THE LAW

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Dr K Moul and Ms K Phelps

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
This course engages integrally with questions of evidence and criminal procedure, as well as criminology and criminal law. It is designed for students who are interested in acquiring an introduction to the use of science to solve crime and will give students an understanding of the application of forensics to the law, including forensic accounting. The course engages with the crime scene investigation process, and provides an overview of the various kinds of forensic evidence that may be collected and presented in court. Students will be introduced to the theory of identification, documentation and collection of physical evidence, including fingerprints, shoe impressions, hair and fibres, firearms evidence and questioned documents. The course then considers biological evidence, including blood spatter and other fluids, forensic anthropology and odontology to introduce the student to some basics of forensic expertise. Finally, the course engages with fire investigation and forensic accounting. It equips students to understand basic forensics should they encounter such evidence in legal practice or research.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at seminars and completion of written assignments.

Assessment:
- Written assignments 20%
- Research paper 30%
- Examination 50%

PBL5848F  LAW AND SOCIETY IN AFRICA (not offered in 2015)

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Professor D Smythe

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
Law shapes and is shaped by our social, political and cultural institutions and practices. In this course we will engage with some of the key theories and concepts, such as legal consciousness and legal pluralism, that help us to understand the relationship between law and society. Explicitly interdisciplinary in orientation, the course will consider questions that arise – and are best addressed – at the intersections of legal, social, political and economic fields like why some laws are made (or enforced) and others are not, the institutional barriers to effective implementation, the reasons why citizens turn to the law (or not) to address their problems, the functioning of police, prosecutors, courts and prisons – and the other forms of social regulation that fill the gaps in between.

Lectures: Three hours per week.

DP requirements Satisfactory attendance at seminars and completion of written assignments.

Assessment:
- Weekly response papers 30%
- Presentation at a student conference on Law and Society 20%
- Research paper of 6000-8000 words 50%
PBL5849F  LAW IN ACTION – RESEARCH METHODS
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.
Course convener(s): Professor E van der Spuy and Ms J Berg
Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.
Course outline:
This course aims to prepare students both to properly understand empirical research and methods, and to engage in empirical research projects of their own. Lawyers and legal scholars increasingly use empirical evidence to understand the legal system and its role in society, to unpack complex legal and policy questions, and to support their positions in the courtroom and in the business environment. Students who aim to undertake careers in academia (in the social sciences and in law) are increasingly required to undertake primary research. This course is designed to introduce students to the foundations of qualitative empirical research, qualitative data collection and analysis techniques. The course intends to familiarise students with the research process from design to implementation, and will also consider the ethical implications of qualitative empirical research. The course is built on the view that empirical research is a craft that requires practice to do it well. Classes will provide students the opportunity to learn qualitative techniques through hands-on activities, class meetings and in assignments.
Lectures: Three hours per week.
DP requirements: Satisfactory attendance at seminars and completion of written assignments
Assessment:
Coursework 50%
A substantial research proposal of 6000-8000 words 50%

PBL5850W  MASTERS IN CRIMINOLOGY, LAW AND SOCIETY
DISSERTATION PART
NQF credits: 120 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, whole year.
Course convener(s): Professors E van der Spuy and D Smythe
Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees.
Course outline:
A Master of Laws (LLM) or Master of Philosophy (MPhil) student must write a minor dissertation on a subject of legal interest related to one of their courses. The subject of the dissertation must also satisfy the rules applicable to the particular programme. The minor dissertation may not exceed 25 000 words in length. Although an original contribution to knowledge is always desirable in a minor dissertation, it is not an essential requirement. However, candidates must show that they have:
• a thorough knowledge of the subject chosen;
• mastered techniques required for competent research in law;
• the capacity for independent thought and sound reasoning; and
• satisfactorily presented the results of the research.
DP requirements: None.
Assessment: 100% written work.

RDL5623F HUMAN RIGHTS AND AFRICAN CUSTOMARY LAW

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, first semester.

Course convener(s): Professor C N Himonga
Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline: The course will focus on international human and constitutional rights that impact private relations within the family under customary law and reformed aspects of this system of law and against the backdrop of legal pluralism. The private relations concerned cover the areas of succession and inheritance; marriage and divorce and their respective consequences. While much of the course will concentrate on South African law, a significant part of it will be comparative, focusing on selected African legal systems.

DP requirements: 70% attendance at and participation in lectures and seminars, and completion of written assignments.

Assessment:
- Written assignments: 40%
- Examination: 60%

RDL5624F HUMAN RIGHTS AND PRIVATE LAW
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, first semester.
Course convener(s): Professor A J Barnard-Naudé and Associate Professor A M Price

Entrance requirements: See Rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
The relationship between human rights and private law is becoming increasingly important in many jurisdictions, and continues to generate controversy in South Africa. This course aims to enhance participants’ understanding of the relationship between human and constitutional rights, on the one hand, and core areas of South African private law, on the other, by placing that relationship in theoretical and comparative perspective. It considers:

(a) different models of the horizontal application of human rights under different domestic constitutions;
(b) the competing legal and political theories at play in the relationship between private law and human rights; and
(c) selected issues where human rights have recently influenced traditional private law doctrines (e.g. in property, obligations, and family law) in different jurisdictions.

This course is the core, compulsory course in the Private Law and Human Rights postgraduate programme, but it may be taken by any postgraduate Law student.

DP requirements: None.

Assessment:
Assessment will take place in two stages: a seminar presentation (which will count 30% of the final mark for the course) and a research paper on a topic to be approved by the course conveners (which will count the remaining 70% of the final mark for the course).

RDL5625F PROPERTY LAW IN A CONSTITUTIONAL ORDER: COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Professor A J Barnard-Naudé and Associate Professor A Barratt

Entrance requirements: See rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
This course examines some of the human rights implications of family law and gender. Some of the specific themes investigated may include the following (amongst others):

- What is a family? Historical, theoretical and constitutional approaches
- Is a rights-based approach appropriate for family law? Are some kinds of rights more appropriate than others?
- Autonomy rights and the family
- Diversity, culture and lived realities
- Agency and grassroots expressions of human rights
- Family economics
- Family violence
- Identity issues
- Reproductive rights

RDL5627S  DELICT, UNJUSTIFIED ENRICHMENT, AND HUMAN RIGHTS

NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9

Higher postgraduate course, second semester.

Course convener(s): Professors A G Fagan and H Scott

Entrance requirements: See rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.

Course outline:
This course investigates the relationship between delict and unjustified enrichment (that is, non-contractual obligations), on the one hand, and human rights on the other, particularly as those are enacted in bills of rights or similar legally-binding documents. The main emphasis will be on South African law. In the first place, the course will look at the important ways in which the South African law of delict has been (and still might be) changed in order to bring it in line with the South African Constitution: examples are in respect of omissions by public bodies, vicarious liability, and enrichment, and at how it relates to the rights in and values of the South African Constitution. The course will, however, also place the South African law in a broader comparative context: in particular, it will look at the relationship between delict/tort and unjustified enrichment/restitution, on the one hand, and human rights, on the other, in English, Canadian and German law.

DP requirements: Attendance at all lectures and submission of course assignment.

Assessment:
- Essay 30%
- Examination 70%

DP requirements: None.
Assessment: Four research tasks of a professional nature are required.

RDL5630S COMPARATIVE MINERAL LAW IN AFRICA
NQF credits: 30 at HEQSF level 9
Higher postgraduate course, second semester.
Course convener(s): Professor H Mostert
Entrance requirements: See rules for LLM and MPhil Degrees and Postgraduate Diplomas.
Course outline:
In enabling study of the theory and practice of mineral law, this course focuses on building understanding of the complexities of the mineral laws of selected African jurisdictions in their historical, constitutional and political setting. It introduces the topic by dealing with the prevalent regulatory frameworks for mineral law in Africa, and the core concepts. It deals specifically with the nature and content of rights to minerals. In doing so, it analyses critically the extent of current regulatory controls and/or lack thereof, focusing specifically on provisions dealing with resource rents, social and environmental responsibility and governance in the mineral and petroleum sectors. This allows students to gain a critical understanding of the practical context in which mineral law operates, and the need for reform.

EXCHANGE, INTERNATIONAL AND SEMESTER STUDY ABROAD STUDENTS

Exchange advisor: Professor A R Paterson (First semester)
Ms M Young (Second semester)

Definitions

Exchange Student:
A student from an overseas tertiary institution with which UCT has entered into an Exchange Agreement (either a ‘university wide’ agreement which may be administered by the International Academic Programmes Office (IAPO) or a ‘Faculty wide’ agreement concluded with the Faculty of Law and which is administered by the Faculty Office) in terms of which one or more students from the overseas institution register at UCT for one or more semesters (depending on the terms of the exchange agreement) usually subject to a fee waiver arrangement. The overseas institution with which UCT has concluded an exchange agreement will usually nominate students to take up an exchange place at UCT. Once nominated by the home institution and once the UCT Faculty Office is advised of such nomination, exchange students must comply with the procedures for applying to study at UCT and may contact the Faculty Office for more information in this regard. Contact your university Exchange Coordinator for more information on whether or not your institution has an exchange agreement with UCT and for the nomination procedures of your institution. Also see the website http://www.uct.ac.za/about/iapo/overview/welcome/ or email int-iapo@uct.ac.za for more information on the orientation programme offered by IAPO, for information on accommodation and for general information pertaining to studying at UCT.

Semester Study Abroad (SSA) Student:
A student from an overseas tertiary institution who registers at UCT for one or more semesters, paying full tuition fees. See website http://www.uct.ac.za/about/iapo/overview/welcome/ or email int-iapo@uct.ac.za for more information on application and other procedures for studying at UCT. See further information below on the courses which semester study abroad students are eligible to take.

Semester:
This refers to the study periods at UCT, which comprise a first term (usually from mid-February to mid-June) and a second term (usually from end July to mid-December). UCT also has Summer and Winter Terms respectively which fall over the university student vacation. Each term (or semester) can be divided into two quarters. For more information visit the website http://www.uct.ac.za - select Calendars and Events and then Terms.

Undergraduate Student:
A student who does not yet hold a law degree (or a non-law general degree) from a tertiary institution. Students who are already in possession of a degree from a tertiary institution, and who are attending law school, but yet have to be awarded a law degree are still regarded as undergraduate students for the purpose of study at UCT.

Postgraduate Student:
A student who is already in possession of a law (or non-law) degree from a tertiary institution.

IAPO:
The International Academic Programmes Office through whom semester study abroad students must apply for admission to UCT. IAPO arranges an orientation programme for semester study abroad and exchange students and also provides further information on accommodation and general information pertaining to study at UCT. See the website http://world.uct.ac.za or email iapo@world.uct.ac.za for more information.
Faculty of Law:
The Faculty of Law is one of 6 faculties into which UCT is divided and these 6 faculties in turn consist of approximately 60 departments. The Faculty of Law offers a Bachelor of Laws (graduate stream or undergraduate stream), Master of Laws (by coursework and dissertation or research project, or by research dissertation only), the Postgraduate Diploma in Law and the PhD (Doctor of Philosophy or Doctor of Laws). The Dean is the Head of the Faculty and is assisted by the Faculty Office which is headed by the Faculty Manager for Academic Administration. For more information see the website http://www.law.uct.ac.za/. The Faculty of Law is physically situated in the Wilfred and Jules Kramer Building, Middle Campus.

Faculty Office:
The office for the academic administration of the Faculty of Law. This office may be contacted on +27 21 650 3086.

Academic and general information
Undergraduate Exchange and Semester Study Abroad Students may do no more than four courses per semester (unless they obtain permission from the Exchange Advisor to do so).

- These four courses can comprise no more than one LLM course and up to three LLB courses.
- Should an undergraduate student wish to take an LLM course, s/he must first obtain the permission of the individual course convener and provide the Administrative Assistant of the Law Faculty Office with the convener’s written permission. A signature by the course convener on the registration form is sufficient, if such permission can be obtained at the time of registration. If not, written confirmation must be given to the Faculty Office at the earliest available date thereafter.
- Students do not need to do an LLM course and may limit their course selections to LLB courses only.
- We cannot advise you on how many credits you will receive from your home institution per course. All we can advise is that a full semester load for our undergraduate students is the equivalent of four courses per semester.

Postgraduate Exchange and Semester Study Abroad Students may do a maximum of three LLM courses per semester.

- No additional LLM or LLB courses may be taken.
- Postgraduate students do not need to obtain the permission of the LLM course convener in order to take an LLM course, unless the Faculty Handbook prescribes certain necessary course Entrance requirements or has limited class sizes prescribed for the course.

Course Contact Lectures and Information:
- The number of contact lectures for each LLB and LLM course is contained in the Law Faculty Handbook, available from the Law Faculty Office or on the UCT website (www.uct.ac.za/students/undergraduates/handbooks/).
- Much of the information regarding courses (both LLB and LLM) is also available online on the Law Faculty’s website (http://www.law.uct.ac.za, select Courses).

Other General Requirements:
- Exchange students who have come to study at UCT in terms of an exchange agreement between their Law Faculty and the UCT Law Faculty may only do courses offered by the UCT Law Faculty. If they do wish to do courses offered by other faculties at UCT, they need to register as occasional students in respect of those additional courses with IAPO, for which they will need to pay the appropriate fees.
- Exchange and semester study abroad students who register for a course are expected to complete all the assignments and examinations set for that course. Students do not receive a credit for a course merely for 'attending' lectures or seminars regularly.
- Exchange and semester study abroad students can change a course at any time within the first week following registration. Thereafter, they will be precluded from doing so.

PBL3801F CRIMINAL LAW (PART A)
NQF credits: 18 at HEQSF level 7
First semester, three lectures per week, three tutorials during the semester.
Course convener(s): Ms K Phelps
Only exchange and semester study abroad students may register. The course cannot be considered as credit towards a degree at UCT.
Course outline:
Introduction: This course covers the general principles of criminal law. Students are introduced to these principles by a brief examination of the nature of criminal law, the principle of legality and the operation of the Bill of Rights on the rules of criminal law.
Analysis of principles:
The course focuses on an analysis of the case law and legal principles governing the elements of
(i) voluntariness of conduct (including the defence of automatism);
(ii) causation;
(iii) defences excluding unlawfulness (private defence, necessity, impossibility, obedience to orders, public authority and consent);
(iv) capacity (including the defences of youth, insanity, intoxication, provocation and emotional stress);
(v) fault in the forms of intention and negligence;
(vi) common purpose, accomplice and accessory-after-the-fact liability;
(vii) attempt, incitement and conspiracy.
The tutorial style of teaching is favoured and students are given all of the tutorial problems and readings, in the order in which they will be covered in classes, at the beginning of the semester and are required to prepare in advance of lectures and tutorials. Class participation is essential.
DP requirements: None.
Assessment:
Essay 20%
Compulsory test 80%

PBL2000F CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (PART A)

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

Bursaries from external agencies for LLB study

The Attorneys Fidelity Fund
Merit bursaries for study for a maximum period of two years for the LLB degree are offered by the Fund. The amount of such bursaries will in each case be determined by the Bursary Committee of the Fund and preference will be given to applicants in serious financial need, although exceptional merit might also result in an award. Applicants must apply when they have a maximum of two years of study remaining towards their LLB degree.
The closing date for bursary application is 15 August. Application forms are available on request in writing and with specific reference to the "Bursary for LLB study fund", from the General Manager, The Attorneys Fidelity Fund, P O Box 3062, Cape Town 8000.

The Educational Opportunities Council Scholarship Programme for Black South Africans
Merit bursaries for study for the LLB degree are offered by the Educational Opportunities Council in co-operation with certain US law firms and other institutions. The amount of the bursaries is determined by the Bursary Committee of the Council. Black South African candidates with a BA, BProc or Bluris degree intending to proceed to the LLB degree are invited to apply for these awards.
The closing date for bursary applications is 30 November. Application forms are available from: - The Secretary, Educational Opportunities Council, P O Box 332, Johannesburg, 2000.

Professional Examination Bursaries
Four bursaries per annum are offered to students whose matriculation examination results are outstanding and who are in need of financial assistance. A candidate should be registered for the Public Service Law Examination, the Attorney's Admission Examination or a University examination in Law (other than for the degree of Bachelor of Laws). Application forms, available from the Secretary, South African Universities’ Vice-Chancellors’ Association, P O Box 27392, Sunnyside, Pretoria 0132, should be submitted to that body by 31 January.

Scholarships for LLB study

Scholarships awarded by the Faculty based on academic merit at the end of each year:

Ionann Scholarship for Criminal Justice
In 2005, Dianna Yach and Peter Stephens donated the proceeds from their book to establish a scholarship of R5 000 for the top black female student in Intermediate Level Criminal Justice courses; their hope is that the scholarship will encourage black women from Southern Africa (including the SADC region) to make a career in criminal justice.
Mike Larkin Award
This award is an initiative of the LSC with contributions from all Law students of the Faculty. The initial capital was donated in 2006, and will be supplemented from time to time, from student activities in the future. In 2008 the LSC scholarship was renamed the Mike Larkin Scholarship in honour of the much-loved Head of Commercial Law who was slain in Rondebosch in late 2007. In line with the goals and mission of the LSC, as stated in its constitution, and as a body representative of all Law students, the award will be made annually to a final-year LLB student.

Application forms are obtainable from the Law Faculty Office. These scholarships are paid to the University and credited to the fee account of the successful student.

Law Diversity Scholarships
The Law Faculty has raised funds from law firms and alumni for the purpose of assisting current academically meritorious and financially needy Black South African Law students to complete their studies. This initiative seeks to promote and increase the equity profile of the legal profession.
Closing date: 15 December
Value: Variable
Tenure: One year (renewable subject to conditions).

Law 150 Endowment Scholarships: for top Black South African learners
To mark 150 years of the teaching of law in South Africa, the Faculty of Law launched a fund-raising campaign in 2008 under the umbrella ‘Towards Sustainable Justice.’ Some of the funds raised are being used to attract talented black South Africans learners to study law. There are several scholarships of R45 000 p.a. on offer.
Closing date: 31 August. Forms available from the Faculty Office and from the Dean’s office.
Tenure: One year (renewable subject to conditions).

Higher Postgraduate Scholarships

Ilse Lowissohn Grants
In 1984 a sum of R10 000 was bequeathed to the University by the late Miss Ilse Lowissohn for the purpose of providing a grant to assist a graduate of the Faculty of Law to undertake courses of postgraduate study in legal history or comparative law at an overseas university. Candidates are selected annually by the WP Schreiner Professor of Law from graduates of the faculty who have shown interest in the historical and comparative dimensions of Roman-Dutch law. Recipients must be registered or intend to register for an approved course of postgraduate study at an overseas university and use the grant to further their knowledge of Roman Law or one of the modern civil law jurisdictions.
Value: Variable
Tenure: One year.

Ina Ackermann Scholarship
A scholarship in memory of the late Ina Ackermann was established in the Faculty of Law from contributions donated to the Ina Ackermann Memorial Fund by family, friends and colleagues. The scholarship is awarded annually in recognition of the importance which Ms Ackermann attached to the role of women in the practising legal profession and is awarded to a woman graduate of the Faculty of Law at UCT who proceeds to the full-time first semester programme offered by the School for Legal Practice. Factors considered when making the award would include academic achievement, financial need and potential for success in the practising legal profession.
Value: Variable
Tenure: Six months.

Scholarships awarded on application:

Basil and Con Corder Scholarship
In 1997, a scholarship was established in terms of the wishes of the late Basil Corder. The scholarship is awarded to a University of Cape Town graduate in law who is registered at the University of Cape Town for the LLM degree by coursework and minor dissertation, on the basis of financial need, proven academic merit and having displayed a concern for the wider community through service individually or in voluntary organisations. Preference will be given to an applicant who will be completing part of the degree at a university outside South Africa. In the event of no award or insufficient awards of the Basil and Con Corder Scholarship for LLM studies, the scholarship may be awarded to an applicant registered for the Intermediate or Final Level LLB, on the basis of financial need, proven academic merit and indication of concern for the wider community, as set out above.
Value: Variable (approximately R10 000)
Tenure: One year.

Ethel Walt Human Rights Scholarship
Ethel Walt was a human rights activist who directed her passion for social justice through her work in the Black Sash, an organisation of women during the apartheid era who used peaceful protest and a network of legal advice centres to confront the racist laws directed against black South Africans. They operated at great personal risk and identified themselves by wearing black sashes in memory of the constitution that they believed the government had destroyed.
This scholarship is awarded towards tuition for the LLM or MPhil programme in Social Justice or Human Rights Law by coursework and minor dissertation. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate proven community involvement of some kind, and a commitment to engaging in community issues after graduation.
Closing date: 31 January
Value: R10 000
Tenure: One year.

Faculty International Student Bursaries
The Faculty awards bursaries for Postgraduate Diploma and coursework Master’s’ students which will reduce the International Term Fee. These are awarded based on academic merit, financial need and Faculty requirements. Further details may be found in section 5.7 of the Student Fees book.
Value: Variable
Closing dates: 15 June and 31 January

Law Endowment Postgraduate Scholarship
To mark 150 years of the teaching of law in South Africa, the Faculty of Law launched a fund-raising campaign in 2008 under the umbrella ‘Towards Sustainable Justice’. Some of the funds raised are being used to support postgraduate students taking Master’s or Doctoral degrees in law at the University of Cape Town. Scholarships are awarded to LLM, MPhil or PhD students primarily on the basis of academic merit, but financial need may also be a consideration.
Closing date: 31 January
Value: R25 000 for LLM or MPhil students and R50 000 for PhD students
Tenure: One year (renewable once only for the PhD).

Law Faculty Master's and Doctoral Scholarships
To encourage postgraduate research, every year the Law Faculty will make available four awards to suitable candidates for master’s or doctoral degrees by thesis at UCT. This funding is to be regarded as a form of bridging finance to give students contemplating higher degrees the security of knowing that their financial needs will be met for the first year of their studies, which is a critical period in their progress. Successful candidates must also make application to the University Scholarships Committee and other appropriate sources for scholarship funding. Any award from external sources that takes financial support beyond the level of R170 000 per annum for a master's student or R220 000 per annum for a doctoral student will then be deducted from the scholarship granted by the Faculty.
Closing dates: 31 January and 15 June
Value: R84 000
Tenure: One year (renewable once only).
Sir William Solomon Memorial Scholarship
In 1939 Miss Emile Jane Solomon bequeathed R10,000 to the University to found a scholarship in memory of her brother, the late Sir William Solomon MA KCSI KCMG, formerly Chief Justice of the Union of South Africa. The scholarship is available for candidates taking research degrees in law by thesis only.
Closing dates: 31 January and 15 June
Value: Variable
Tenure: 1 year (renewable).

Wilfred Kramer Law Grants and Scholarships
Wilfred Kramer Law Grants are available for graduates in Law who enrol for approved higher postgraduate study in the Faculty of Law at the University of Cape Town. In addition limited funds are available for students who wish to partake in an approved exchange programme at an overseas university; the students do part of the LLM coursework at an approved overseas university and the balance of coursework as well as the minor dissertation at UCT Law Faculty. Further information is available from the Law Faculty Office. Wilfred Kramer Law Scholarships are available to enable graduates in law of the University of Cape Town to pursue postgraduate studies in law at Cambridge University, England preferably (Trinity Hall) or elsewhere overseas.
Closing dates: 31 January and 15 June
Value: Variable
Tenure: 1 year (renewable).

Dean’s Merit List

NOTES:
1. The Dean’s Merit List is published annually. It contains the names of students whose academic performance over the year is meritorious and hence worthy of recognition. Students who qualify for inclusion in the list will receive a letter of commendation from the Dean. The list will be posted on notice boards. The academic records of students will be endorsed accordingly.
2. The final results for students who write deferred examinations will be calculated only after publication of the deferred examination results.

For inclusion in a Merit List, a student must:
(a) obtain an overall percentage of 70% or above in all courses completed for the relevant year of study. Credits from other universities may be included for this purpose, provided that at least the equivalent of four full courses is completed at this university in each of the years.
(Note: For the purposes of computing averages, see the details below in ‘How to calculate your total average mark’.
Marks for the course Understanding Financial Statements (ACC1014S) or its equivalent, Law that Counts (MAM1013F/S), are not included when determining inclusion in the Dean’s Merit List. The required aggregate will include deferred examination results, but not supplementary examination results. The required aggregate will be increased by one percentage point for each course fewer than the prescribed number in the standard curriculum.)
(b) complete the courses within the minimum period;
(c) not fail any course in the year concerned; and
(d) not be repeating any course.

How to calculate your total average mark

Preliminary Level and Academic Development Programme
Add the scores in all the courses of the Preliminary Level, Preliminary Level A, Preliminary Level B, or the relevant year of the undergraduate or graduate extended curriculum stream, as the case may be, adding the scores for whole courses TWICE. To get the average percentage, divide the total so calculated by the number of half course equivalents taken.

Intermediate Level
Old curriculum (students who registered for the LLB for the first time up to and including 2011)
Add the scores in all the courses of the Intermediate Level, adding the scores for whole courses TWICE. Divide the total number so calculated by 11 to get the average percentage.
New curriculum (students who registered for the LLB for the first time in 2012 or thereafter)
Add the scores in all the courses of the Intermediate Level, adding the scores for whole courses TWICE. Divide the total number so calculated by 10 to get the average percentage.

Final Level
Whole courses = % x 4
Half courses = % x 2
Elective courses = % x 1
Old curriculum (students who registered for the LLB for the first time up to and including 2011)
Add the weighted percentages calculated according to the above formula. Divide the total by 18 to get the average percentage.
New curriculum (students who registered for the LLB for the first time in 2012 or thereafter)
Add the weighted percentages calculated according to the above formula. Divide the total by 20 to get the average percentage.
LLB Class Medals

A. Courses for which medals may be awarded:
1. A medal is awarded for a course only if Senate so decides. In determining whether a medal should be awarded for a course, Senate must be guided by the following:
   1.1 A medal may be awarded in any course, half course or semester course which is taught during contact periods totalling at least 36 hours, or which has equivalent weight.
   1.2 Courses or parts of courses or units may be combined for the purposes of the award of a medal provided:
      1.2.1 the courses, part courses or units are not optional, and
      1.2.2 they are undertaken in each instance by the same group of students during the course of a single academic year.
   1.3 Except as determined by Senate, only one medal is awarded for each course or combination of courses, half courses or semester course.
2. The award of a medal:
   2.1 A medal may be awarded only to a student who has demonstrated special ability and no award will be made if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
   2.2 No award will be made to any student undertaking the course for a second time.
   2.3 If Senate decides that a medal may be awarded for a course, it must designate the faculty which will make the award. No distinction must be made between students from different faculties undertaking the course.
   2.4 The award will be at the discretion of the Faculty concerned and based upon final examinations or class work or both.
3. Publication of awards: A list of class medallists will be published in December and a supplementary list will be published in April, after deferred examination results are known.

Class medals may be awarded in the following LLB courses:
CML3001W Corporation Law
CML4004H Labour Law - LLB

Publications

Acta Juridica

Acta Juridica is published under the auspices of the Faculty of Law of the University of Cape Town. It has appeared annually since 1958, and is the successor to Butterworths South African Law Review (1954-1957). The General Editor is Associate Professor G Bradfield and the Treasurer is Ms K Lehmann.

Responsa Meridiana

Responsa Meridiana is an annual law review published under the auspices of the Student Law Societies of the Universities of Cape Town and Stellenbosch. It first appeared in 1964. It is purely a student publication, and contains articles of legal interest from both within and outside the Faculty of Law.
Law Students’ Council

The Law Students’ Council (LSC) consists of nine UCT Law students. Students are chosen to represent the Law Faculty through democratic elections held annually and which occur independently of the Student Representative Council (SRC).

The LSC acts a bridge between staff and Law students on both academic and extra-curricular fronts. We strive to develop a healthy student life above and beyond academic learning.

In achieving these aims, the LSC represents the student body in various aspects of the Law Faculty. Our members echo the student voice on the Faculty Board, Academic Planning Committee, Moots Committee, Community Service Committee, Health and Safety Board, Orientation Committee, Information Technology and Equipment Committee, and Timetable Committee.

Our Mission going forward is:

Communication: to facilitate consistent and helpful dialogue between staff and students
Integration: to culture a sense of genuine community within the Law Faculty
Representation: to elevate student-related issues to relevant faculty committees and to create new platforms conducive to hearing and tackling student-related issues
Service: to meeting the academic and social needs of students
Leadership: to build on the foundations laid by past Councils in order to realise long-term goals
Legitimacy: to gain confidence from the student body as an integral part of academic and social life

Our Vision going forward is to meet diverse student needs through healthy communication, effective representation and thoughtful leadership.

Ethics Clearance

Research that involves human participants or animal use for research or teaching must undergo ethics review, according to faculty-specific guidelines. Review generally entails prior approval of a research proposal by a Research Ethics or Animal Ethics Committee. In cases where prior approval is not appropriate, the research proposal should be subjected to appropriate deliberative procedures, according to faculty-specific guidelines. Research papers, research projects, dissertations or theses that involve human participants or animal use may not be submitted for examination if they have not undergone any ethics review process.
