UCT/UN workplace programme to examine leadership in Africa

The University of Cape Town, in partnership with the United Nations System Staff College and research and development organisation SCEZONS, will host the 2015 UN Leaders Programme at the River Club in Observatory on 12-16 October 2015. The overall theme is "Leadership For Transformation and Unity Building in the Workplace". About 30 senior delegates from various UN programmes will attend sessions led by speakers from UCT and other academic and professional organisations. The UN Leaders Programme is coordinated by UCT's International Academic Programmes Office in conjunction with UCT's Graduate School of Business, to showcase expertise and perspectives from diverse viewpoints and different disciplines and fields, with a focus on issues for leadership in Africa and internationally across regions.
