Re: Students plan march to Parliament over free tertiary education

Good day,

Your article titled "Students plan march to Parliament over free tertiary education" (06 February 2018) refers.

The article is about a planned march by students. However, this article quotes what the UCT Vice-Chancellor, Dr Max Price, said in an unrelated interview. Dr Price is quoted completely out of context (his statement was not related to the march, something which the article does not make explicitly clear) and creates the impression that his comments are related to the march that was planned.

Kindly correct this wrong impression created please.

Regards,

Elijah Moholola
